In the United States and Canada five different times have been arranged by the railway companies. Atlantic Time is that of the 60th meridian. Eastern that of the 75th. Central that of the 90th. Mountain that of the 105th, and Pacific that of the 120th meridian west of Greenwich. But the boundaries actually in use do not follow the above meridians exactly. Europe has three time-systems: the Western, taking its time from Greenwich, the Central, or Mid-European, varying by one hour; and the Oriental, or East-European, varying by two hours. Australasia has adopted a Standard Zone time, ranging from 8 hours fast in Western Australia to 11½ hours fast in New Zealand.

MEMORANDA.

MEMORANDA.

Thursday Jan. 27. - "preludes":
 - & their wives "Ali Baba & the forty thieves". It was very well done and I found a number of them which made it very interesting. Capt. Selwyn was a prominent member.
 I certainly would like to meet that man - just because he asked to select me, I suppose.
 I admire his taste!! In the play the actors had bluecoats de troupes rouges, Capt. Mr. Bigelow & I being mere audience went to the Princess for a few drinks.
 I forgot to mention the lovely red uniforms & gold lace at the play - I certainly kept my head spinning!

MEMORANDA.

Tues. March 8. I certainly felt as if I were walking in a dream tonight. First, Miss Martin, the awful, hideous Princess vampire, asked me to a dinner party next week to go with Major Beuttler!! Next, I on a bet from Jan, asked Leslie Brown the white why women must marry two weeks after their sickness!!! And he told me that a lot of other things just naturally & nicely! Then when the drunk brown got in the row boat with us and lastly when I kissed me, I was just sure I no longer trod the solid earth.

MEMORANDA.

March 14. Buster brought me home & I discovered what I've never been able to understand about him - he's engaged! But he said he had fallen hard for me and that's why he didn't dance with me last Thursday - he was afraid. However I felt like a little devil and kept at him until he kissed me (it was not very hard!) and then I felt dermored - sorry for him - men are so pitiful when you get them where you want them, except they. Somehow, Buster attracts me and I don't care if he is engaged - if he kisses me like he did tonight, he's hoping to a merry future.

MEMORANDA.

April 4 - When Frank & Elsie left us at the Inverurie Van & I went into the woods behind the statue of the dog in the Inverurie grounds. There, as usual, we lay close in each other's arms, his ring. And as usual, Van tried to lean on top of me. But the great difference came one time when he was kissing me very hard - I thought I should not be able to stand the terrible ache & twitching that came over me in a certain place. If I do stop loving Van, I shall always remember that he was the first to make me do that. God! how I shall miss him. Good-bye Van?

MEMORANDA.

May 9 - After supper at the V. W. C. A. with Aunt May & Mrs. G. L. Inger & lots of others. I went to the movies to see Doug Fairbanks in "The Nut" with Lory, Stambie & Marjorie Johnson. Afterward in town I saw the car we went out to the frat. house & they talked to the boys. I have drifted apart from Lucca's interests. I guess for they seem pretty small to me. Each girl has a special boy who comes to see her every Sunday night & one or two other nights & he doesn't even kiss her. Perhaps that's the happiest way - but what they miss! I am uncertain what to think tonight - my brain is rebelling -

MEMORANDA.

May 10 - My dear dog has been at the farm since we came from Bermuda & she seemed quite content there until early Sunday morning when she disappeared!!! Poor Dad was a wreck - had the state police, etc. looking for her every where. And then on Tuesday morning she was found sitting on the Schroeder's porch! She is so thin! Well says she saw her early in the morning trying to get in their gate! Isn't she clever, after six months to remember her puppy had come & haunt. She must have wandered far in the miles from farm to town. <sup>and the</sup> autos!!

MEMORANDA.

June 21 - I cannot understand Fred. Either he was lying very persistently to me - & everyone or else Mary has caught him in a trap. He certainly wrote wonderful letters of lib, saying how he needed her & what joy when she seemed to need him. He wrote of Mary as a substitute - very hard as there were no substitutes for him really. Said Mary irritated him beyond measure some times! And then he married her!! I wonder if she knew he was weak - for he is - and played her hand accordingly. Well, I am glad he is at last married and only hope it will be more successful than seems possible.

MEMORANDA.

June 23. Have I no heart, or do I crave too much love? I suppose I shall die with the question still unanswered. At all events. I don't seem to be able to work up much real love for my family. My brother I do not see often & do not know. But Dad & Mother I see too much. Mother is a slave to any one, she has more beauty than brains & the beauty is fast fading. She asks my advice which puts me above her - & where is the respect upon which love is dependent? Also, I have no respect for Dad who is in power of his devil, as it were; does not try to overcome it but idles his life with others to wait on him. Oh, God!

MEMORANDA.

Sept. 11. Phil and I have been having an argument these last few days. There is really no argument, only the fact we are cousins. We have tried to forget it - and he has kissed me as no one can kiss sister or cousin, but all the time it was there. And I wonder what would happen if it weren't there. You know, dear, I have always loved Phil and he says the same of me and, oh, I wish I knew what to believe. Anyway I'll never forget that walk - just the woods & us - as still & Phil's kisses. I would like to live like that forever.
A + Love

JANUARY, 1921.

Saturday 1. e

Got up with the intention of going in swim ring + so we went - after a bit of diplomacy. At the beach we met Mr. Potter + the Crohnses. We had lots of fun. Vic was with us + went in the water - once! + kept at the Potters for a cocktail on the way home. Mr. Crohn reminds me of Bud Morris. In the afternoon went to the post office + got a stack of Christmas presents but as the family was out I had to wait to be let in. Then I went to the store etc. opened the boxes to find lovely underwear from Aunt R. + hands from Phil with greeting to write, + a card from Fred with greeting. Aunt R wrote. Therefore Phil scores.

JANUARY, 1921.

2nd after
Christmas. Sunday 2

Went to the Warwick church where Mr. Harvey, rather eccentric, preached on the trouble Jesus brings! - we got too pleased with ourselves. Then we had a very successful dinner of roast guinea, quince. Later Walter + I took a long walk, way up the beach. On the way home Vicki chased a chicken + caught it in her mouth!!! I beat her + beat her with the whip. She must not get those tricks. After supper Dad + I had a heated argument on keeping in allowances + I got mad + made up my mind to "show" him how little he can get for his money. Finished "Temple of Dawn" by J. E. R. Wylie.

JANUARY, 1921.

Got up quite early + went with Mother + Miss Mayer on the ferry to the backyards. We went all three there + I kept their things + I kept would have enjoyed explaining it all to me!!! On the boat coming to me we met a young man - Clint Whitteker who did not impress me terribly much. In the afternoon I read some magazines + took Vic around to some stores with me. In the evening I went to bed very early + Mrs. Gumpers brought some awful people to call. Ha, ha!

JANUARY, 1921.

Tuesday 4

Went to town in a hurry to get a cabbage - managed to get a little more - fly paper for an idea of using to get rid of ants - and then Vic + I caught the next boat back just in time to meet Kate Barber for a tennis engagement. But as the courts were wet, we went to the beach for a swim instead.
In the afternoon I fixed the fly paper for the ants then I dressed + went with Mother + Miss Barber - did so at last - after that call I came back to see Mrs. Gibson + met some nice people.
After supper I had the clean-up all in my room - first time I ever + I turned on the tree.

JANUARY, 1921.

Wednesday 5

Met Mrs. Bebee at the ferry + walked with her over to the beach. We went in swimming + certainly did enjoy it. Vic is a splendid swimmer,
+ lots of fun in the water when she doesn't claw us. In the afternoon I mended some clothes, getting a great load off of my mind. Then Mother + I took a walk, we met Mrs. Gibson who insisted that we come to tea - so we did + enjoyed it. After supper I wrote to Aunt R., Fred, Phil + Mrs.
Hartman, + then played solitaire

JANUARY, 1921.

Epiphany. Thursday 6

Had had an agreement to play tennis with Kate Bommer but of course it is raining + so I fooled around the house cleaning up every thing in sight.
In the afternoon I went to town between showers + took Vic with me + certainly had my hands full. I never knew such wind - several times I thought the ferry was upside down.
After supper however we all dressed to go to the Princess dance + went to the ferry, sat there for nearly an hour - it would not run - so we came home.

JANUARY, 1921.

Friday 7

If you have not already taken advantage of the Insurance Coupon, do so to-day.

Raining again so I settled down to read but heard suddenly that the mail is to leave today so I wrote to Oscar, Nell & Charlotte, finishing up my thanks for letters & then Mother, Vic & went to the P.O. with them & got caught in another shower. In the afternoon I did read - "The Impossible Mrs. Bellew" by David Lytle and later took a walk with the whole family. After supper I finished my book, read the advertisements in a magazine & went to bed early - it is freezing.

JANUARY, 1921.

Saturday 8.

Called first Laura Lincoln & then Miss Bebee to go swimming with me - Laura had a model to pose! but Miss Bebee went with me & we certainly had fun. The Potters & the Leigles were there. Vickey is improving every day in swimming. Eloise (Miss Bebee) came to dinner with us & everything was very nice. I went to tea at the Robinsons' - met Col. Byrd & Capt. Gugg & their wives & Mrs. Goeling etc. They were all playing very good tennis. At home I found lots of letters, including two fine ones from Nell, telling me of Emily Riddick's experiment with Ag. Cinema! of all is vanity!!!

JANUARY, 1921.

1st after Epiphany.

Sunday 9

Went over to the Cathedral and found nearly all of our friends had done likewise, but I believe I like the little churches over here better. In the afternoon I read "The Fifth Thousand" by Anne Steele - & wrote the rest of the family some valuing
I got Mr. Rightbourn called on me, most likely to see why I hadn't been to his store lately!

After supper I wrote a long letter to Nell also. I wish she were here! and then as Mother was reading my book I played

JANUARY, 1921.

Monday 10

Paced around looking for a fish in vain then Vic & I went over to the beach with Mrs.
Gibson & had a quick cold plunge. Mrs. Gibson has a society here in her basement. In the afternoon Jean Robinson came here & we took a walk, stopping to see Agnes' little goats and then we returned to my house & had lots of very good tea & pastries.
Goodness how we ate! Then we played piano & mandolin respectively & had a gay time.
Later I walked to the P.S. for a kiss present but it was closed & after supper Dad, Vic & I went again & again it was closed & they made me mad!

JANUARY, 1921.

Tuesday 11

Again I had a terrible day.
Went with Pete Bowers & it is raining! (at 8 days?) so I had all morning till my eyes & head ached.
This weather irritates me.
In the afternoon I met Jean & took a walk with her & her little charge & we taught each other our native tongues! I like her immensely & was sorry I had to leave! As I go to tea with Laura in eve. It was nice tho & afterwards she & Mrs.
Lewy walked to me with me & came in for a while.
I got a lovely picture of White Sulphur today - dear girl.

JANUARY, 1921.

Wednesday 12

Attended to household business and cracked a lot of nuts - literally - before settling down to finish my book.
Then I got ready & went over to Mrs. Beebe's - on the way I stopped to pay a bill didn't have enough money!
Stayed to lunch with the Beebes & did justice to a good meal. Mrs. Beebe is supposed to be sick but I think it's she who wants to be. Mr. B. is a darling with white curls & Miss Perry is sort of a companion. Mrs. B.
Miss Perry, Eloise & I played bridge, tho actually my first lesson. A Mrs. Platt, new wid called thru. After supper at home, wrote to Kate.

JANUARY, 1921.

Thursday 13

Mother & I went to town to get new library books & forgot to take the old ones!! So we managed to wander around for quite a while, splurging money, of course.
In the afternoon I went over to Fran's & we had a concert and also had tea and many confidences. She has been engaged, twice, but I think English girls consider themselves engaged when kissed! After supper the family & I went to the Princess dance.
John was there. I had lots of fun & met some partners who I wonder why my old partners didn't ask me to dance.

JANUARY, 1921.

Friday 14

Had a lesson in tennis from Kate Bonner.
She is very good & put me thru the steps in good form. In the afternoon I met Jean & took a walk with her & her little chaperon. We met our little "bean", Charles Biglow & flirted outrageously with him. He's five years old. Then we came home & had Agnes make us some tea. After supper
I read Mary K. Pinchault's
"The Afterhouse" & got so nervous & I was afraid to go to bed in the dark!

JANUARY, 1921.

Saturday 15

Very successfully made some magnificent - then walked to the beach with the family & played in the ocean which was rough & exciting with the Leigos. In the afternoon kneaded & baked, as we make sandwiches & was not dressed when my guests began to arrive - Jean, Betty Appleby, Kate Bonner, Elsie Reece & Laura Zimola. It was quite a success and enjoyed playing hostess. After supper the whole family went to the Hamilton dance on my accident. It was almost as nice as the Princess but we left early. Mr. Gray came in for himself, same link! was used.

JANUARY, 1921. *

2nd after Epiphany. Sunday 16

It is a horrid rainy day so we cannot go to church. I finished one more again after breakfast and then, terribly restless, went to the kitchen & made flapjacks for dinner. In the afternoon I did a few things surprisingly fast and after supper arranged myself to drive over to the Princess concert with the oldest lightroom.
After the concert, we had a reverb in the grill & a lovely ride home. Today is Paul Ray's birthday & I feel awfully happy! Well

JANUARY, 1921.

Monday 17

Awoke with the curse so spent a delightful morning in bed, dozing & stringing beads. In the afternoon I took Vic & him with me to buy him a ball - this is his birthday, one year old. I met Elaine Beebe with her sister who just came.
"Hau" is darling & went shopping with me &
then we went out to the Beebes for tea. I think she & I will be good friends. After supper I read a magazine - especially an article on sailors' wives & then fixed my account.

JANUARY, 1921.

Tuesday 18

Dressed in record time & took train to meet Miss Beebe & go with her to a guild meeting where we sewed & listened to the great dames talk. Later I got a concerted letter from M.
Singley, a silly letter from Pete and a perfectly common place, natural letter from Phil. Oh, dear! In the afternoon I walked with Maester, Mrs. Broad-well, & Mrs. Campbell to the Club Hall tea room for my good tea. Dr. Cotton Smith was there & I would like to have a word to him!
Read "Saturday's Child" by Hathorn Harris all evening.

JANUARY, 1921.

Rushed up to the store & then maddly around the kitchen while I made my first cake. It's for our picnic & really good!!
Went down to find Jean but found only Kate & Laura. Later Jean went by & I walked home with her. She told me about Capt Selwyn the governor's aide who wants to meet me! In the afternoon I went with Nan - Elsie Bebee out to the Government House to sign a book. We will be invited to the big affairs! The Gov is Sir John Willcocks. A.B.C. & F.A.!!! I wrote "The Dog House" as our address. Ye American! Had tea at Jean's door with Elsie

JANUARY, 1921.

Thursday 20

This was the day set for our picnic but it is very cold & cloudy. We lit the little hearth fire stove & all huddled around it, and I read most of the morning. In the afternoon I had bed up & went walking with Jean & her charge. Then we went to Jean's house to tea and her uncle, Capt. Gray came in & insisted on walking home with us & came in here for quite a while. I do not like him & for that reason did not go to the dance at the Princess with Jean tonight. Read

JANUARY, 1921.

Friday 21

Your name must be registered before any claim can be recognised under the Insurance Coupon.

Did my ordering & then met Kate Bonar for a tennis lesson. Jean watched us & I did not do so well as before. In the afternoon Eloise came over to play with Jean so Nan came too & talked to me while we watched the tennis. Later we managed to make them stop for tea. I served Mrs. Asabood, who is a scream & serves delicious tea. After supper mother & I waited at the P.D. in the moonlight for the mail - heard from Nell & Mary & Frances Barnes, wedding invitation. Read until bedtime.

JANUARY, 1921.

Saturday 22

Before I was finished dressing Laura Lincoln called! And as soon as I did finish I met Nan & we went over to the beach for a great & glorious swim. Had dinner here, the two of us & wandered over to Hamilton finally to keep our tennis engagement with Laura, Eloise, Jean & Betty Appleby. On the way we met Harry Field, Dorothy Moran, very attractive & had a soda with her before joining the others at tea!!! And I'm trying to reduce! All evening I read, stopping every now & then to think of the things I ought to have done!

JANUARY, 1921.

Septuagesima.

Sunday 23. o

Agnes has a sore foot & can't come!! M. & D. went to the hotel for breakfast but ate my little pruned in place at home. Then I went alone to the Payet church & luckily met Beryl Robin who asked me to sit in her grandfather's pew - in Reginald Gray's. Everyone from Miss Bebee to Harriet Payne was there. Good sermon, story of "The Other Woman". Afterwards I hurried to the beach for a swim, then went with the family across the bay to the Windsor for dinner, then back in a row boat with three daughters to have tea with Laura & go to see some baby quilt. Mrs. Andrews & Miss Palchely were there, too. Fixed accounts etc.

JANUARY, 1921.

Monday 24

Agnes has returned - rejoice! Went down to the Inverurie & talk to Jean for a minute & then walked over to the beach with Vic & had a wonderful old swim. We had a Sunday dinner of ducks & apple sauce! In the afternoon I started to sew but suddenly decided to go to town. Saw Betty & applied in the library, walked a block with Mrs. Brimingham & later met the Bebees. Got a letter from Kate, enclosing one from her "Joe" - quite loving but not the real thing. After supper I made some delicious fudge and then read articles on bad movies!

JANUARY, 1921.

Tuesday 25

Rushed around trying to catch an early ferry across the rough bay. Went to the Queen Mary's Guild where I found Nan + Heloise and stayed there all morning. Lady Willcocks was there + spoke to Nan + me!! Went to the Bebes for dinner and afterward had a bridge lesson with Mrs. Beebe + Miss Perry + Nan. Later Heloise + Nan + I took a walk out to Fairland. Met Mr. Hornblow an author after supper at home I started some orange marmalade + had a book on Bridge.

JANUARY, 1921.

Wednesday 26

After household duties I got to work on my hair - I have a severe head ache + think its from going so long without a hair wash!! In the afternoon I couldn't decide to go bicycling with Nan or what - very discontented as I painted "Rosemeath" on Mrs. Bradwell's gate for a box of candy and then went for a long walk with Mother + Vic! We ended up at Mrs. Astor's woods tea room + had a very good supper there! Later I went over to Jean's where a bunch of us played "tag" music + danced. Wilbur's town brought me home.

JANUARY, 1921.

Thursday 27 -

Went over to the Princess to watch the tennis tournament. Walked out the street with Mr. Beebe and met Jay.
Later I did a lot of marketing in a very short time - cracked thru with some strawberries for mother. In the afternoon I scolded the jeweler for not having my earrings ready & then forgot them when he promised them!
For - I had met Max & Dorothy Moran and three very nice young Americans at the tennis court. Later Mr. Lee - very nice took us all to the tea dance at the Willow where we had caddles of fun after supper. Went with Aubrey Lightbourn to the play given by the officers -

JANUARY, 1921.

Friday 28

It's absolutely pouring pitch forks. This place has the worst imaginable weather. Stayed in bed most of the morning & foiled away the rest of it. In the afternoon I read "The Maxwell Theory" by Carolyn Wells. It is a detective thriller. I tried to leave it to walk with the family but returned soon.
And then one of yesterday's boys, Ed Driscoll, called up asking to come over to discuss a picnic. He came but it began to rain & he had to borrow an umbrella & ferry fare! Poor boy, so embarrassed!! I continued to read all evening.

JANUARY, 1921.

Saturday 29

just as I started out for the ferry I met Edward Driscoll coming to return his borrow he walked down with me.
I met Nan at the courts + watched the tennis till I simply had to leave to do my shopping. Met Dad + "used" him + met Jean + came home with her - poor thing has an abscess. In the afternoon Vicky + I again ventured forth. This time it rained but we met them + trudged thru the mud. Later Kate Komer treated us to a very good tea at the Green Door. <sup>all around</sup> beaux there with new girls!!!
Met a woman who raises Danes - information. Read later.

JANUARY, 1921.

gesima</sup> Sunday 30

Went to church at the Cathedral - were late for that old damn ferry runs as queerly nowadays. Saw no one I knew in church. In the afternoon - after a fishy dinner to make up for last week's duck! - Mrs. Gibson came over to suggest my getting Wilson Lightbourn to call on her so she could invite him to dinner with me!
Later Nan came over + we took a long walk + gathered wimples of narcissus. I told her I must be crazy about Phil + she told me wilder tales. I can't get Phil - no.
Beau - out of my mind today.
Wrote to Beau + Kate after tea.
+ read.

JANUARY, 1921.

Monday 31

Went to town with Dad & actually got a nice-looking pair of shoes!
Then we walked out to the Princess court - saw Capt. Gugg playing - met Nan & went with her while she dressed & later met Eloise & Kate Bonner.
In the afternoon I
massaged Vicky according to what the dance woman said & finally went to take a bath with poor Jean who is most convinced with a cross face & abscessed tooth.
In the evening I wrote up old letters & Mother & I walked to the Inverurie to mail some.

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Tuesday 1

Family went shopping & I had a couple of dates - but I broke every thing & stayed home to mend some clothes.
While thus employed I got a letter from Johnnie Mufford.
It set me tingling all over, but not the same as it used to. In the afternoon I went over to watch the tournament. stood with Mrs. Beebe & Eloise.
Afterward I met Nan & Dorothy Moran & the three boys & we went to tea at the green door & planned a picnic. After supper I tried to read "Honeycomb" by Dorothy Richardson but I'm getting a head & a headache.

Wednesday 2

went to the beach with the whole damn family & went in the water, even tho it was nigh quite freezing. In the afternoon Dad took to the tennis match for the last time for today the cups are given. Then Dad & I walked down town & met Mr. Leas who took us to the Goodie Shop for ice cream. It's lots of fun vamping him! Then we met the three boys, Stewart Powers, John Howe & Edward & recall & went to us at the green door with them!! On the ferry a man took my seat & let me stand! That may as well as being blind.

Thursday 3

I've got quite a cold so that I couldn't go swimming in the pool with the boys. But I did manage to take in a tennis lesson with Kate Bonner. In the afternoon I measured everything for a cake & then dressed & walked over to tea at the Willow. Nan treated me, Mr.
Leas, the boys & Miss Haron, a niece of Ex-Pres. Taft. We danced & had lots of fun. Mr. Dax took me to the ferry later to go home.
Then I dressed again and went to the Pinner's with the family. My card filled up in a second & I had a piece of a time except - we me!
and to leave when it was half over to catch the damn ferry.

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Friday 4

I did my cake & got everything ready for the picnic.
But my expert (not clean) Driscoll came for me & we had some fun getting to the place - breaking up the bottle on the way - & why they there at Elba beach we met Nan & Dorothy Norman & the Home & Stewart Powers. We went in the ocean & then ate on the beach - yum! - then lounged around - I smoked Philip's pipe & some cigarettes. Later Mr. Driscoll I came home & then took a wonderful canoe ride on the bay - like a pro. Certainly the end of a perfect day!
John & Annie leave tomorrow!!

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Saturday 5

It's pouring - so different from the glorious calm of yesterday. Nevertheless I had to go to town for our dinner - system and spent some time in the library. In the afternoon I went to town with Nan.
We stood by while Sir Thomas Watson's funeral of 80 carriages went past! The Gov. & the Admiral & all their aides went by, too. Then Jean & I walked home, stopping at the Cockle Shell for tea.
I wanted to treat her but ran short of money!! as usual! We talked "Bugs" a lot & after supper wrote to Phil! And I read "Opium" & "Vanished Messenger" until 11:30

Sunday 6

Went to the Presbyterians church in Warwick to hear Dr. Henry Vandenberg preach - 5th Vintners 1st time on every thing from free love to St. Francis letting loose caged birds. Walked home with Mrs. Campbell who told me of her brother in law coming tomorrow - a young fellow who sounds promising. In the afternoon I walked with Ned & Vick of course out to Spanish Point. It is unless we were dead. Missed the ferry & had to wait ages, mother waiting over here! After supper I straightened accounts & wrote to Johnnie Mulford!

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Monday 7

Rushed over the country in search of vegetables, went to town & finally ended up at the Beebe for lunch & the girls were there. They came finally. Afterwards we played bridge with Mrs. Beebe and I got on most successfully. When we raced down town to get some tissue paper to make me a fancy dress - did it in less than an hour, a pretty black & white Pivette. Dad very kindly got a carriage to take me & Jean to the hospital & the dance. (We were intending to upstate!) It was lots of fun there & I danced freely with Bonnet Lightbourn & Beebe (very informal party) & continued

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Tuesday 8

Slowly arose & slowly dressed. Jean & her "brat" dropped in & went with me to return Mrs. Campbell's bicycle & then I went with them to Jean's. In the afternoon Nan came & we braced, actually, out to Warwick church on foot to see May Ward's wedding. Capt. Selwyn was best man but we didn't know the groom! Then we came home, got some money & went to Mrs. Ashwoods to tea. After supper I got dressed & while the family went to the movies I went to the Haughton & the dance alone! But was soon found by my friends - in fact, Buster Lightbourn & I got "married" with Jean's ring. Caught early dinner.

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Ash Wednesday. Wednesday 9

got up at day break (?) & went to church with Mother. Capt. Selwyn passed us going home, foot sore & sleepy. Did some country marketing & then played tennis with Kate Bowers. In the afternoon I washed some & packed before going to town with Jean. We met Elsie & Nan & did our shopping & then met Poor Elsie! who took us all to the Green Door to tea!! Coming home Jean & I met Buster Lightbourn & giggled for twenty. Later came Mrs. B. called up & told me to the Inverurie dance! Rather fun, as Buster or "Hubby" flirt nicely. Danced with

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Thursday 10

Wags came over & we walked miles for flowers. Then, I sat on the fence waiting for Jean, but met Buster first, much to my regret. Hair is quite disorder. In the afternoon I went over to Jean's for tea & met Miss Hall & Miss Marsh & few other tennis players. Then I dressed to go with Buster to Mrs. Gibbons' dinner party, of which we two were the only ones who finally appeared. I got rather sick of D. who has big brains & Mrs. G. is an old young fool & a cat. But then we went to the dance at the Princess & there I had a wonderful time. All my dances gone in a second & met Capt Selwyn actually. Mrs. Campbell's brother.

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Friday 11

I don't believe I would ever have gotten up if Laura Lincoln had not called up & asked me to pose for her. So I went with her to her old deserted house & posed till I was blue in the face. She can not draw much better than I can! In the afternoon Egbert Driscoll kept in for a few minutes on his way to a tennis game. He lectured me last night on smoking cigarettes - same old story! Then I went with mother & Mrs. Trudwell & Mrs. Campbell to the Green Door for tea. After supper at home I read "Marmaduke" by R. F. Stead but got sleepy & cut it off early.

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Saturday, 12

Naturally it is raining because we were planning a picnic - about 20 girls so I don't care much. I mended clothes and did a number of things long neglected. The boat came without bringing me a letter & I am heart-broken. In the afternoon I walked with Jean & little Peggy & went to her house to tea. She gave me some Oxford memoranda. After supper I really played my mandolin for a while & then still being restless I made some "sipping" juice.

FEBRUARY, 1921.

1st in Lent.
Quadragesima.

Sunday 13

Wanted to go to see Dr. Van Dyke again but it looked too threatening. Mother & Dad went to church on this side, but I stayed home in a huff. Vic & I fooled around & read. In the afternoon I went to Laura's to pose again. While we were in the old deserted house stealthy footsteps approached & scared us! Someone tried the door! & came in! But it was only Americans! I had tea with her later & met Mrs. Gaugier. On the way home I was "picket up" by a Woman White my niece, who receives the Bellini & Dingley etc. Read all evening.

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Monday 14

I decided to have a bridge party so rushed all over Hamilton looking for Ed. Went to Beebe + I found him at last and then I rushed home again. Got a note from Norman White who "picked me up" yesterday. In the afternoon Keith Campbell came + after while then we started to play bridge until Frank Gossling finally turned up to make the fourth. Ed + I + Driscoll + I were in time for tea + altogether we had rather a merry throng. I learned a little more about bridge + learned to "play" Marjorie on mandolins. I sketched a "pretty lady" later.

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Tuesday 15

Went over to Queen Mary's Guild and found myself there alone, with a few of the "elite" - Mrs. Payne, etc. Later, however, Elvise Beebe came but by that time I had gotten quite comfortable. Afterward we two did some shopping. In the afternoon, according to his note, Norman White came + we walked to South Shore before I got courage enough to suggest the Willow. So from there we rushed to the tea dance + on the way met Mr. Van Kleef, very good looking + we all had tea together. I had every intention of going to the Hamilton dance but stayed home instead!

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Wednesday 16

got up early to make a lunch etc before going to the races with Keith Campbell. We drove out in great state, saw all my friends there & was glad they saw me - which is a good statement. Keith is really very nice & we had lots of fun, especially when we sat on a hill side overlooking the ocean & ate our picnic luncheon. It was a perfect day. After getting home I exercised Vic with a ball & Norman White & "Vai" joined me. Later I went to the Inverurie dance with "Norm". The lightnings were there. Fun.

Inverurie ferry ran to the Princess for us all at twelve - fine!

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Thursday 17

got up reluctantly to go to the beach with the two Inverurie boys - Norm & Vai. Norm & I went in the water & had a great old swim. Like Vai, much better, tho. In the afternoon I was supposed to go to tea with those two & Joan & Noble who was in Miami & whom I hate - so I didn't go, went to Jean's & us with Frank Goring & Ed but I is well, after Joan & I had a hop & with the family to dine at Princess with Mrs. Lily Beall & Miss Braslow left the table early so as not to miss any dances. "One dance to one man"

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Friday 18

Started early off to town & met Van on his way there too so we combined forces on the top of the ferry. Mrs. Gibson was up there, too. In town we met Nan & they were both good enough to wander around with me, shopping. Van came in for a while when we got home. In the afternoon I tried in vain to get a bike, missed Jean & had to walk all the way to Elsie Gosling's to a tennis set. It was worth it, tho & came home with the back of Jean's bike. After supper I walked out with Norm & Van to get Nan & then we played bridge here in the box house. Price.

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Saturday 19

Loled around & went to town to market and in the afternoon I went over again this time to meet Keith who wanted to play bridge, we got Ben & asked Frank Gosling but never did meet him!! so we came over to this side & had tea at the Inverurie with Norm & Van. I bought a cedar cane today!! After supper I went over to the Hamilton dance, alone but met Rayson Shields for the first dance luck. Had lots of fun, flirted with Buster. Whole bunch of us came home in ferry together.

FEBRUARY, 1921.

<sup>2nd in</sup>

Started out to church alone, but met Van as I had left. We sat together singing. Buster & his tried his darndest to make us laugh - we did, too, when some verses were announced! Then Van & I met Sam, Horan, & Edith and Elizabeth Carnay at Elba Beach and had a picnic - unfortunately it rained but we had a gay time. Edith left us & we went to my house - meeting Buster & Bryson Shildon the way. They joined us & we had an "orchestra" at my house. Later the boys all came back again & did many tricks but I was dead with sleep.

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Monday 21

I'm a wreck, utterly! so I stayed in bed all morning & took nap off & on to think what awful lumps bugs were
are. In the afternoon, however, Ned & I went sailing with two of the nicest - Horan & Van. It was a perfect day on the water & we glided along like magic. I "titled" all the way home, some little skipper, eh? Then Ned & I got dressed at my house & went to dinner at the Inn with the boys. Lots of fun. Afterward we played bridge then Ned & I rowed Van home.

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Tuesday 22<sup>o</sup>

Got up early (?) to go over to the boat to say goodbye to Norm. Certainly was sorry to see him go. Edna & I went, too - too late.
Then I rushed on and attended the quilt meeting - was the only "child" this time. In the afternoon I went over to Nana's with Van to play bridge. Keith & Frank were there, too.
I'm getting better, only I insist on "spelling" instead of bidding! After supper Van & I went to the movies!!! Van told Lee in "Crane of the Make-Believe". Then we picked up at the Hamilton black & white ball to which we'd decided not to go.

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Wednesday 23

Rushed my household arrangements and went over to Laura Lincoln to pose for the last time.
Then I wandered over to Jean's and she walked back with me. In the afternoon I met Jean & we went to Alma Gos-ling's to tea. Alvin & Margie are darting but not at all wild and as Jean & I had been talking "very wild" all day - it was rather dull. In the evening we were going to have a wild party, but Mrs.
Robinson went with us! - to the beach in the moonlight about a dozen boys & girls. I went with Buster Hunt, but a diplomat

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Thursday 24

Up late as usual + they needed around to find Fay - he cannot posed for me to do an "over collar" out of him but somehow
I couldn't make it good-looking enough. In the afternoon she + I went over to town, called on Buster in his store and then went to the Green Door to tea.
An awful storm came up + kept us there quite a while. It was too bad a night to go to the dance as we saw Wal Reid in "Man from General Range" at the Inverville Hotel. We sat in a corner alone together - that boy does thrill me.

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Friday 25

Vic + I went to town + did quite a little marketing. But Van was there + he came back with us. In the afternoon I did a cake,
made some fudge + some lemonade. Also washed my hair + set on the back piece + dry it in the sun. Then I tried to straighten out my accounts - being a social butterfly + housekeeper doesn't work well.
After supper I am + Frank + Elsie Gosting came to play bridge. Frank is a hardy player. We had food, too + played till 11:30.

Letter from Phil!!
FEBRUARY, 1921.

Saturday 26

Got up very late & still later Van came over to dinner, after I had had a session with Mr. Fitch & my bills. In the afternoon we went over to Jean's and had some music and lots of chatting and tea. Then I went home & saw the family off to dine with the Steinmans from whom we are here. Later I went to the Hamilton Hotel alone with Van. There I met many Ernestine Appleton whom I used to know in Black Haven. Danced most with Van, who's a dear. He came home on the ferry with us.

3rd in Lent. Sunday 27

Got up reluctantly because I didn't want to go to church. However, I called up Van & went with her to the Cathedral - sitting beside Ruth! When I got home I found Jean - whom I'd invited to come to dinner. We talked of bad things and after dinner I started back to house. But Van, so & I took a long walk way over to the south shore along the cliffs.
We kept in for the way back, too. It's a nice play mate. In the evening I wrote to Aunt Louise & to Peter (hearing the mocking-bird's peter - peter - peter - peter).

FEBRUARY, 1921.

Monday 28

I stayed at home & became very domestic, mending & directing my household. In the afternoon I went over to the second tennis tournament at the Princess to meet Betty Appleby there. She had asked me to tea at her house but it suddenly began to pour and a bunch of us, including Jean & Kate Bonnell had tea at the Princess. Got soaked coming home. Van & I were supposed to go to Jean's but it rained. I didn't care much so I couldn't go - damn that fickle boy.

MARCH, 1921.

St. David's Day. Tuesday 1

Hurried over to the guild and was much surprised to see Elaine start in later. In the afternoon Van & I met Ned & Ruth at the tournament & later we played bridge at the Princess - Ruth & I won. Then Ruth treated us to tea. Rudolf Necker, Hans' brother-in-law joined us. It cleared up later enough for Van & me to go to the Hamilton dance which was lots of fun - I drank a whiskey & had a dance from Leslie - and nothing happened! Dudley was supposed to meet us in a row boat & didn't so we had a lovely drive home in a carriage.

MARCH, 1921.

Van + I went <sup>Wednesday 2</sup> to the beach for a swim.
it was great as usual.
In the afternoon I did a little marketing + then went out to the barnament. Met Van + Frank there + we sat on a rug + watched till tea time + then Frank invited us to the green room, to which I'm always delighted to go. Then I went home + dressed to have dinner with Van at the Innverie, Nan + Keith too. There was a dance.
I danced once with Beryl Robinson dressed up as a villain.
Keith was there + made me mad by his lack of attention.

MARCH, 1921.

Nan + I were <sup>Thursday 3</sup> going on our evening but decided it was too cold. She got here before I was dressed and Valium. I finally finished my wallet over to Jean's + met Van on the way so he went with us. In the afternoon - Nan stayed in the kitchen - we three went to watch the tournament + met Keith + Elsie there. We were all feeling rather under the weather but spruced up wonderfully for the Prince's dance. I went with the family to have dinner with the + the man's before the dance - great! Best yet, I think. Dressed home with Van slept all morning - I am just a total wreck - & then it was raining & there was nothing else to do. In the afternoon Van & Keith & I went to Mrs. Cam's & bells & play bridge & we certainly did have some good playing. We had tea there too. After supper Van & I were to meet Nan & Keith to go to Jean's & we sat on a wall for hours in the dark. Then we met everybody & we all went to Mr.

Gray's lovely big house & dined - Frank & Dorothy & everyone was there - More fun!

MARCH, 1921.

Saturday 5

Went to town to shop & strolled out to see the tennis. In the afternoon Van & I went over to see the finish of the tournament and afterwards to play bridge with Keith & Nan.
Frank came, too, & cut in on Van. Later after Keith & I won everything we had tea & Rudolph Neser, Nan's brother-in-law, invited himself to it. He is the worst old pest.
In the evening I stayed home & went to bed early so as to rise early Tom arrow wrote in this book & fixed memory book first.

<sup>Lent.</sup> Sunday 6 got up early & went to church before breakfast.
Jean went with me. Then I came home & made hundreds of sand wicks before Van came to take me down to meet the lightowers in a boat at 9 in a picnic. Van, and the Luffs were there too & the light. of us had a lovely picnic.
We went to Barrell's to eat and then took a sail way out in the ocean.
We all lay around on top of the cabin and played mandolins & told jokes.
We all met again at the Pinecroft. Teased Buster about his dimples.

MARCH, 1921.

Monday 7
Went to market & Van as usual, carried my basket & offered useful suggestions - the grocery store is where he saw me the first day he arrived. In the afternoon I met Jean & little Peggy & we took a long walk talking & discussing sex and came back to the driveway in time to have tea with Van.
Took with me up the ferry for Buster but he didn't come! In the evening Frank & Elsie & Van came up here to play bridge. We had cake & lemonade & played one rubber for 2 1/2 hours.

MARCH, 1921.

Tuesday 8

Went over to the guild as usual & worked hard & silently. Met Keith & Van on the way home & they suggested a sailing party for the afternoon. Naturally agreeing - Jean, Nan & I went with them and had a peach of a time. I rough-housed with Keith as usual & he just about killed my wrist. After supper Van & I went to the Hamilton dance - fun!
and on the way home (after rowing across with a drink) Van put his arms around me & kissed me. I knew he would soon & I liked it. I felt queer (see memo) anyway.

MARCH, 1921.

Wednesday 9

Jean & I went to town & told each other our usual jokes. Dale! In the afternoon we again crossed, this time to go to the Bazaar given by "Society" for the hospital. I first sold flowers & then Jean & I waited on a tea table. Van & Keith came to it & treated us waitresses.
In the evening we all went to the Inverness dance.
Van kissed me between one dance. Buster almost did the next time and Keith actually proposed & tried to kiss me after the next! Some coming!
I'm not sure if Keith was joking anyway. I don't like him. Nan & Dale very popular at those dances?

MARCH, 1921.

Thursday 10

Van + I went over to the beach and lay down in the sand in our bathing suits. May Ernestine and her friends were there but neither of us were very cordial. In the afternoon Van + I met Keith +, getting our directions from Russ to walk out to Happy Valley to see Larnard play tennis. Met Aubrey on the way and met Jean, Betty, Elsie + Frank out there. Not thrilling. Then Van, Van + I went to dine with Keith at the Princess - great - + to the dance afterwards. Spent one untaken dance hiding in the bathroom! - spent a whole evening! Let Van kiss me.

MARCH, 1921.

Friday 11

Keith came over + met Van + I + for me + we all went to the beach. Keith, poor dear, couldn't go in because of his back but he was well entertained by Jean. In the afternoon Van + I went, all over town looking for a car tune for me to make - in vain. Then we went to Harry's - he had a ad for Journal + paper + let friend Helen + it's worth. Very nice. Went to Jean's uncle's in the evening to a very nice dance like last week. Got Frank excited and sat on wall with Van for a long time, kissing.

MARCH, 1921.

Saturday 12

Nan came over & she & Van & Jean & I went over to the beach for a swim. Elsie & Gooling went in with us too. Nan stayed to dinner and afterwards the dear angel helped me to make sandwiches, etc. for the tea party which I gave to pay off my bet with Van! Nan, Jean, Elsie, Nan's friends, Jennie & Helen, and Reith, Van, Frank & Buster came & it was a great success. We had lots of music & good food.

In the evening Van, Reith, Mrs. Campbell & I played bridge in the driveway in the parlor till 12!! Too tired even to say good night to Van.

Van & I left for me to go to church. We met Jean there & sat with her. I almost disgraced myself smiling at Buster. Afterwards we all sat at Jean's on the way home. Nan came here to dinner. Then we met Reith and had a nice gossip with him whether we should canoe or go to his at the Belmont with the Lightbourns, Van & Nan & the Triggs. We finally decided on the latter & then had an awful fight as to a suggestion when he ruined our hat. Later we all went to the Prince's concert but Van & I came home early & had our little time in the driveway grounds.

MARCH, 1921.

Monday 14

got up at day break, lit. rally and went sailing with Van - out to meet the St. Victoria on which his mother & aunt arrived, and we had a jolly good time. Later, Jean paid me an evil-minded visit. In the afternoon I robed aimlessly around town looking for Nan & her friends & trying to find a costume. But Keith & Buster who made me mad by their allusions to Van. Later however I went with Buster to the Princess in formal dance. Keith made love to me, prevented us from going home at the right time which infuriated Dad, and also he got carried when we went to the grill - but - see men.

MARCH, 1921.

Tuesday 15

went over to the Guild sewing circle and on my way I saw the old boat I pull out with Keith on it - good-bye, you funny man. After work I went up to the Hamilton to have luncheon with Mary Ernestine Appleton. We sat together & talked for a long time and I really like her very much. In the afternoon I went over to Jean's to a tennis tea, of which I saw only the tea. And in the evening the goofing & Jean & I went down to the driveway to play bridge with Van. Van & I had a party later during the day.

MARCH, 1921.

Prished over to town to shop before the stores closed for the races. Mother & I are working hard on my costume. Took part of it down to the tennis courts where Jean, Van & the light bawlers were playing. In the afternoon, Jean, Jean, Edith Smith, the light bawlers & Van & I went to the beach. Buster & I went in swimming - great! We ate supper over there & started home before dark but displeased the family who missed the boys. Tomorrow we all went down to the Inverurie to dance. Buster told me "naughty" jokes & hid ed me "à la de beane". I like beginning to dislike him! In got the curse too soon - too much "smocking" lately. I guess - so avoid much cursing. Stayed at home & made a hat for tonight & got everything ready. In the afternoon the whole family dressed to go to the governors garden party, and then it rained & we didn't go. I slept instead. Later I dressed as little Miss Muffet and went to Jollyville. At Stafford's dinner party - sat between Van (Ray Blue) & Buster (Charlie Chaplin) - as usual! There were twelve at the party - lots of fun, especially the fancy dress dance after ward, also at the Prince's. Danced till 1:15! Van & I drove home with Mr. Gray

Stayed in bed all morning sleeping most of the time. In the afternoon I made arrangements for a picnic and visited poor Vicki who is still tied up in the neighbor's chicken coop. Soon Van came & we started out for the beach - we sat there all alone quite a while before the others came. Then we had our supper there - Elsie, Chappie, Orville - the three lightweights, Neil, Johnnie & Helen & Josephine Hooper. Later they rode & Van & I walked to the Grays, where we danced. Jean, Leslie & the G. Co. girls, etc. being there. R.R.

Saturday 19

Hurried over to say good-bye to Johnnie Stafford & Helen Attsworth. Somehow it didn't affect me as when the boat sailed off with Tom & Egbert & I was strange! Then I did a little marketing and came over to go to luncheon with Jean. We had to hurry that meal & catch the tug for the dock yards, where the naval officers & men were having sports. We met "simpy" an officer friend of Jean's who took us to the officers' stand and we had lots of fun watching the antics. But we missed the boat & didn't get home till 8:50!! & I didn't get to bed!!! Actually went to bed earlier.

Palm Sunday. Sunday 20

started to church with the family but they went too slow so I went on alone. Walked home with Jean + Van. Buster wasn't in church. In the afternoon I went calling with Van + his mother + aunt. It was a perfect day for it and I enjoyed every minute - especially when Van kissed me when everyone was looking the other way! We got stuck on a reef once! After supper Jean + I wanted to go to the Princess concert but as no one could take us each stayed at home.

MARCH, 1921.

Monday 21

got a mending fit - piled my bed high with things to be done and finally cleared it. In the afternoon Van + I went to town + I did lots of shopping we met Van + Kenneth, Jaffee and persuaded them to go to the Cathedral with us - also, Elsie + Betty. But, alas, there was no church. I kept at Buster's who made jokes about Van + me going to the church! It is too bad I'm not crazy about Van, every one expects me to be. Stayed home later!! Read "Fourth Dimension" by Horace A. Vachell

Tuesday 22

Was due at the Women's guild but got in a sail boat with Doris & Guyon to come across & sailed around first watching the Victoria leave. At the guild the old ladies discussed my friends! In the afternoon Van, Jean & I rode 2 bicycles to the golfing to play bridge.
After tea Betty Appleby & I went to Paget church & then back again to play more bridge. Saw Glou that game! After supper Van & I went down to Jean's & we three played bridge.
On the way home Van & I wanted to stop - moon too bright
- don't all!

Wednesday 23

Hélène called me up before I was awake, asking me to spend the day with her, which I did.
Nan was at there so we had a pleasant time sewing. I made a silk waist with the help of Lela. Hélène left but still I stayed, sewing.
Later Mary & her sister & her grandmother called and I received them!! Finally I left & rushed over to Paget church sat with Frank & Guyon who walked home with me. Later went down to the Durrumie dance & watched! Was consoled however, by Van & by Buster.

Thursday 24

Went to town and did my household shopping in a bus the, leaving all my bundles at Buster's store while I met Mary Ernestine & went to the Cathedral service with her. Buster came over on the boat with us & Mary Er. came here to have lunch with me. I did her portrait & it got quite good. Then she & "it" went over to the Willows & tea with Sam, quite a party, including Royal & towel, artist, who finally saw "it" & pronounced it good. After supper Sam & I saw D. give in "Mugget Well" at the Enclave - then had a nice little party in the dark corner.

MARCH, 1921.

Good Friday.

Friday 25

Foiled around with Vickey, etc. until time to go to the Cathedral at twelve. Met Frank there, as I'd promised & got with him during the whole three-hour service. It was a very good service but I did not do it as well as the ones at home. And Canon Marriott talked more of our sins than Christ's agony. Came home to dinner & to sleep in the afternoon until Jean called up & we took a walk & talked very un-Christianly. Later, however, wrote to my good Mr. Swombly.

MARCH, 1921.

Saturday 26

Went to ~~Paget~~ Church with Jennie & Elaine to decorate for Easter. By the way we wandered thru the marshes near the church. It was like a jungle & very interesting. In the afternoon I went to town to shop & met Van. We stopt in Duder's store but B. seemed very cool toward us - why? Then we had tea at the Galey Doo's, came over first in the woods back of this house we had a little party. Our little parties are just matters of hugs & kisses. It's kind of scary tho. We brought Jennie over later to play bridge & Van "returned" her.

Got up at day break(?) & went to the Holy Eucharist with Jean. Lovely service. Came all the way back again - to Paget - to the morning service with the family. Walked home with Val who later came to have Easter dinner with us. Afterward it was kind of rainy & we didn't know what to do so we went to the south shore & lounged in the rocks - & loved each other very much. Says he loves me & wants to marry me!! I only seem to like him when he's making love. Later we met the right of course & Nan at the Prince's concert which was very good.

<sup>Easter Monday.</sup> Monday 28 Lent is over, now for a good time! Van & I went over to the beach for a great old swim. In the afternoon we two walked all the way out to Happy Valley to watch Jean play in a tennis tournament. Frank & Eloise & Betty were there & we all "treated" Van's treat.
In the evening Van & I went over to the Princess dance. There were hundreds of college boys on a vacation & Van's friends from the French battleship & Mary Emma & Jo Harper & the Lightbournes but I didn't seem to be popular & Van & I came home early & went in the woods behind the "dog" & enjoyed ourselves. Van mustn't get too passionate.

MARCH, 1921.

Tuesday 29
Saw the boat pull out with Jo Harper & M.E. Appleton - so my without regrets? Went to the guild with Heloise!!!
Jean met us after ward & we finally succeeded in shaking Heloise - she is such a talker. In the afternoon Jean came over to swim & Van came up at tea time. He found the tapes lost in the woods last night.
After supper we got Nan & I went to the Harrison dance - I enjoyed it much more than last night, altho there weren't nearly as many boys. Poor dear Van got sick, too, for a little while. However, he cured bravely by coming home in the carrier's motor boat <sup>which Buddy</sup> runs.

MARCH, 1921.

Wednesday 30

Slept rather late as it is too cold to go on our intended picnic - instead Nan asked us - Kenneth, Van + me to come over there in the afternoon to play bridge. We had a splendid game - Kenneth & I winning and also we had good food - Nan always has good eats. Those two were coming over to the farmhouse to dance but didn't, so that was the only girl - with Van + the three lightbrowns. Had a jolly evening and afterward Van + I slept in the woods.

MARCH, 1921.

Thursday 31

Ricky was let loose today and is nearly wild with joy. Van was darling about her. He + I walked up to Happy Valley to see Jean get beaten. In the afternoon we went to town to do a little marketing & then hurried back to have tea at Mrs. Aswood's which means we went to the woods instead. We have kind of a little nest there. First however, we went in my empty house & lay on my bed for a while!! Later we went to the Prince's dance - danced every other dance with Van!! Lots of fun.

APRIL, 1921.

Friday 1

Made some sandwiches
+ eggs, etc. which Van + Vicky + I took with us to Happy Valley where we fairly fully applauded our friends playing. Then Jean + Esie + I had a picnic lunch - Jean asked Mr. + Mrs. Lloyd Jones to share hers which went over too! Later Van + I had a milk shake in town and still later we were fairly fully filled up when Esie + Frank + I had dinner with Van at the residence.
Afterward we played bridge
+ after that Van + I disappeared into the woods for a while.

APRIL, 1921.

Saturday

I got terribly sun bitten + washed Vicky + then my hair. Van came up + sat in the sun with me while I dried it.
In the afternoon he
+ Vicky + I went to the finals out at Happy Valley and, Jean got beaten but Esie + Frank won the doubles. Great excitement. Had an afterward supper. Van + I went back to the Hamilton dance - we found a dark balcony + had a lovely time and then - late for Buster's dance + he was mad!!
Caught in rain on way home.
Dad with us.

APRIL, 1921.

Low
Sunday. Sunday 3

Rau & I started out & met Frank & Nan & Kenneth & Gertrude Blount and went to Great Bay. It is lovely there. Rau, Frank & I walked to Elba Beach to get my suit and then I went in with Nan & Kenneth.
Soon Elsie, Jean & Leslie joined us & in a little grassy woods. We ate our lunch - very good.
Vicky was with us & returned very well. We all played bridge in the afternoon, or rather, & then kay around, looking over the sea, singing & smoking.
All of us went to the Princesses but the lights went out! & no plan? 10:40!

APRIL, 1921.

Monday 4

Went over to town to market & met Rau on the ferry. He is all jacket.
Later he came to dinner with us and after word I drew quite a good sketch of him - altho it does not flatter him. Then we went up in the woods to tea & lay there in each other's arms regardless of everything. I think I really love Rau - he is darling & so good-looking & very decided. After supper we went over to the Princesses for a last dance together.
Jean, Nan, Russ & Frank & Elsie were there. The latter two drove us home in their carriage (see menu).

Very long day.
APRIL, 1921.

Tuesday 5

got up early & went over to say good-bye to Van. We looked darling in his city clothes - We each nearly choked when we said goodbye in front of every one. God, the sorry old guy. However while he was still in sight I accepted Buster's invite for tonight. Then Nan & I went to the Guild meeting. In the afternoon Nan & I met Jean at the Paget church Bazaar - had tea & then took a walk - gossiping after supper Buster took me to the Last Minute dance, which I actually enjoyed, told me dirty jokes & tried to kiss me while I hung to the three-piece Van threw to me.

APRIL, 1921.

Wednesday 6

Woke up with a weight
all over me - Van is gone.
Had a nice little cry about it.
Guess I'm not the clever little flirt I thought I was! Was going on a picnic with Nan, Trudy Blount & Kenneth & I white coffee but lacked the pep to keep the ball rolling.
Stap & with Nan instead went to her house to lunch. Darn pepless.
However, we had lunch Kenneth & I had a swim at Elva beach and a nice walk & talk with Nan.
Told her how much Van was - gee, I hate the part time! I stayed home instead of going to Emerson's dance with Buster.
(Cautious!!)

APRIL, 1921.

Thursday 7

Jan came over + we cut out shirt waists.
After she left, I continued to sew with renewed energy. In the afternoon quite late I went to town and did a little shopping, feeling very lonely
+ blue without my dear Van. So I dropped into the sport shop + Aubrey took me to get a matted quilt.
After supper I went over to the Princess with Buster - it was a great old dance and lasted all almost one. B. + I drove home in a carriage
+ I let him kiss me. He is a damn fool + a great pretender. I wanted Van.

APRIL, 1921.

Friday 8

~~Stayed~~ stayed so nicely at home + mended my clothes. In the afternoon I sat around, until time to dress to go out doors with Mother + Percy to Mrs. Robinsons tea.
We met the Admiral Sir Wm Pakenham, but I really didn't enjoy it by many old people. Some man up with my cup of tea, too. In the evening Buster + I went over to the East + Appleton dance - rather Aubrey took me over + B. being let me home.
Into a nice dance + lots of B's worried ones.

APRIL, 1921.

Saturday 9

Went over to Elbe beach with only Vicki Van and talked on the sands with the Criswells - just like old times before society caught me. In the afternoon I went to town to market & was waiting for the ferry when a dray offered to drive me home free!! I jumped at the chance. Then I went to see Wyckoff's lovely house to tea - the Lord girls were there and Harriet Payne who seemed nice. In the evening I went over to the Princess with Kenneth & Gee and we stop for tea. We danced & then went in the gull for Welsh rabbit.

Happy Birthday, Vane!
APRIL, 1921.

2nd after
Easter Sunday 10

Went to early church in Paget, made two dozen sand wishes & then ready to drop. I walked all the way to grape (not just) Ray meeting Kenneth & Gee Wyckoff on the way. Went in swimming there & met Nan, Gertrude, the lightbours, Jean & the three go-lings. We had a very good lunch, played bridge, went in the sea again & then had tea. Gee brought a bottle of champagne with which we drank many toasts. Took hours to stroll home. Started letter to Jan but had to hurry off to Princess concert with Bruster, Gwendy & Nan. Met Ber. Eyre - nice. B. & I did some talking.

Came home from dance in rain - first rain for six or seven weeks.
APRIL, 1921.

Monday 11

Had arranged to go swimming with Kenneth, but the "silly ass" had to do something else, so I spent the morning writing a nice long letter to my dear Van. In the afternoon I stayed patiently at home mending clothes + mending ribbons in under wear until finally the post man brought me two splendid letters from Van - he is a dear. They took a little walk with Mother to calm my spirit before finishing the letter to him. After supper I went over to the Princess to dance with Brown. Geo Eyr was there + also Mrs. H. Cartmell, G. + G. Linc.

APRIL, 1921.

Tuesday 12

Went over to see Wyckoff + Kenneth + lots of others, said had to pinch myself to realize that Van left only a week ago. Did not go to the guild after ward as I intended but remained around with Jean + Aline Hutchings who treated us to an ice cream cone. In the afternoon I got two wonderful letters from Van + had work on my wrists and nearly ruined them, trying to cut them out when my head was acting like a bass drum. Kept at it, however, after supper I played bridge all by myself and started to read "The Sermon" by G.E.W. Mason.

APRIL, 1921.

Wednesday 13

Started in for a good morning's work sewing on two pairs and accomplished quite a little. In the afternoon I was going to continue but Beverly Eyle called up asking me to go swimming and as usual my silly brains flew & I went! Had a lovely swim with him and met Mr. & Mrs. Ed. Inger, brides-moon, very nice. Then Ben & I came home & climbed into my dows & scared up enough food for a very nice tea party. Like him, after supper I went to the Larches where Buster told me jokes & that he loves me & I told him "Dad as I passed to Van! Keep it up, Dad!"

APRIL, 1921.

Thursday 14

Had been expecting "Sara" (*) and was very pleased when she didn't come. Not knowing what to do I stayed at home & did nothing. In the afternoon Ben called up asking me to go for a sail - naturally I did not refuse. His sister, Mrs. Miller & a Dr. Eddy & Mr. Capon, went with us. We got wet & had fun. Had tea at Green Door after wards. Kate had took me to the Frim cap - skip a dance, to sit out with Ben and also went down to the pool. He kissed me passionately, my hair & Ben! I danced with Mr. Frimingham & drove home with Ben & sister, missing.

APRIL, 1921.

Friday 15

Did a few household duties and a little machine sewing then took some handwork over to Jean's & had a little chat with her. In the afternoon I went over to town paid quite a visit to the sports shop talking to Aubrey & Buster and then went at some sewing which I intended to take out to the Daves to have Helen cut it out for me. Got home to be disappointed by no letter from M!! Has he forgotten already? And just as I have decided to be a "good girl" the next week <sup>here</sup>.

APRIL, 1921.

Saturday 16

Went over to the beach with Dad & Ricky Van. Met Bev Eyre over there, also Mr. & Mrs. Thayer we had a good old swim & bake on the beach. Bev asked me to go sailing in the afternoon but not for tomorrow I had to go to tea at Betty Appleby's. Had a very good time there, too, only Elsie & I. Their house is lovely - they rent it to the Vincent Astors. In the morning Mr. Campbell came to play cribbage with Dad, also Mrs. Bradwell so I stayed in my room & read "The Peddler" by H.C. Rowland. Came out to eat, tho.

APRIL, 1921.

Went to church & sat with Jean, tickling her arm. Wallat back with Buster. In the afternoon he wanted me to take a walk & Cumby asked me to take a drive, but Buster won out
& we went over to the docks - not where I went with Van. Thanks goodness. Po & I talked on our usual subjects but he didn't try to kiss me, he actually was surprised to know I don't like him any more! After supper I felt very restless but settled down to fix my memory books.

APRIL, 1921.

Monday 18
Walked all the way over to the beach & then discovered the curve. Slightly was with Mrs. Crolius & no man. Came home & straightened my accounts.
In the afternoon I went over to Sam's to see but lacked the energy. Elaine was having a tea party of which we gladly partook - also Bev. came in on a dare from Nau-tea with nine women!!
The Hatchings were there, sisters of "my little friend" who isn't "nice"! Went to Mrs. Campbell's after supper to borrow a book - "Red & Black" by Grace Tichenor.

APRIL, 1921.

Tuesday 19

Attended to my horse-hold for a change and then Jan came over & we sewed a little & gossiped a little more.
In the afternoon Ber came over to have his picture painted but it was no good at all - I was tired from making sandwiches for tea & from Lurie (*) (as I call it to Buster!!) so we turned the picture to the wall & ate & made merry. He is awfully easy to make merry with. In the evening I read - last night I wrote to Van - for not to mention it.

APRIL, 1921.

Wednesday 20

Went to town to do a little shopping. Han went with me, we looked at the earrings that I can't afford to buy and stopped into refuse Buster's in violation of the Dinnerware, etc. In the afternoon Ber asked me to go sailing. There was quite a bunch, Mr. & Mrs.
Cartmell (B. & G.) and Mrs.
Cyde & her two cute little devil boys. She talks like a fairy to me. Afterward Ber took me to the Green door. After supper the family wanted to go out so I told Buster I'd go with him to the Dinnerware - we sat in the garden & I got him very excited.

APRIL, 1921.

Thursday 21

Went to the beach & met Ber there, we sat in a little cave trying to keep warm. In the afternoon he asked to come over & have me try his picture again. This time it worked much better - I don't like it but every one says it's good. Then we had some tea and afterward took a walk to the cliffs to reduce!

There we had a fight over a pile of grass in my mouth.
He nearly kissed me, but likely will to us or over. I don't want to go to the Princess house with Buster to avoid Mr. Bennett & Mr. Birmingham.

APRIL, 1921.

Friday 22

Went over to the beach to meet Ber again. We went back to our little cave & there, as I expected he kissed me & got very excited, against me. The water was great.

In the afternoon I met Van, slept, & was treated to matted milk by Mr.
Crosby and then went out to Van's actually to see Eldon Birmingham asked me to go home in his motor but I came home in the ferry with Buster. Got a letter from Van again but I guess that's all for me. For I went out walking with Buster & we sat in the Belmont grounds & he kissed me & made love to me in spite of "mari"! ! !

APRIL, 1921.

St. George's Day

Saturday 23

Went over to the beach and met Ber + Betty Durnain over there. Naturally, two's company, three's a crowd. Later, Laura Lincoln + the other Durnain girl came + wanted me to stay to a picnic lunch with them but I came home + got to work on that con-farm old pink gingham. Five times I rip't out the sleeves but I persevered + got it right finally. Stayed at home reading all evening, even tho Dorothy had asked me to go to the Princess informal. Must be getting older, but I do like good dancers - like Ben.

APRIL, 1921.

4th after Easter

Sunday 24

got up early + went to church. Sid Dickey outside, sat with Volie Robinson who smiled every time V. laughed. Ate my breakfast on my way to the beach where I soaked in the sun until Buster came and still later Ber + Polly Durnain came. In the afternoon I went sailing with Ber, the Durnains, Nan, Laura Lincoln, Mr + Mrs. Coonly + Dr. + Mrs. Thompson, + Eldon Drimringham who brought his motor boat. We went to Darrell's Island where we ate a good big supper + then it began to rain and sailing home, we got soaked but had lots of fun. Undressed + read the rest of the evening.

APRIL, 1921.

Went to the beach again - it was perfect there - no wind & lots of sun. Ber & Pally Durnain were there. Ber kissed me good-bye - I can't understand engaged men - or myself. In the afternoon Dad & I took mother & me for a long lovely drive. We covered nearly all of Bermuda. We went down in the Crystal Cave it is really lovely & very wonderful. Did not get home till eight o'clock! Met Buster at the ferry & he asked me again to go to the Princess but I stayed home & answered Dad's very nice letter.

APRIL, 1921.

Tuesday 26

Went to the beach & heard the old "Vic" pull out with Ber aboard without the least regret. Told Vicky Van to jump over my case with the help of Mrs. & Mrs. Crolius. In the afternoon Jean came over & I did a little sketch of her. It didn't do her justice and later we went to Jean's and I couldn't get her new well letter in as aptest, I fear. After supper Jean came over & we talked - I'd say we did. Buster came too and we didn't change our topics! Jean stayed all night and a wild night it was between those sheets.

APRIL, 1921.

Wednesday 27

Tried Jean's picture again with no success. Then went to town with the family & shop - Dad bought me a pocket watch like Van's! In the afternoon I tried to straighten up my drawers, but succeeded in merely wasting time & energy. Then Mom came and the atmosphere changed. We made some fudge and ate - Jean dropped in for a minute to return Van's picture & have a chat. After supper Frank & Elsie came & we played bridge till a thunder storm scared them away. Mom stayed all night - we talked.

APRIL, 1921.

Thursday 28

Mom & I stayed in bed as long as we could get away with it, and then we went over to town and tried to find bargains. In the afternoon I got all dolled up in my kimono & sweaters and went out to Betty Appleby's to a luncheon party - walked out with Marion going who is 25 & won't feel herself & not bad-looking, either!! Had a very good tea. After supper I was busy packing when Frank & Betty dropped in from a private dance nearby!! They quite refreshed me in the midst of packing my trunk.

Dad's Cousin Walter Robinson came today - came over to see us.
APRIL, 1921.

Friday 29

Finished packing and then Nan + I started to the beach, picking up Jean on the way. We hired seats and went in like Coney Islanders. We had a whole lot of fun, too. In the afternoon I figured out my accounts. I was blue in the face + rich at heart, too, for I was way behind, but Dad was adding + paying my debts. They sprinkled my hair + picked pieces off of it. Later Buster dressed me + looked blue + kissed me, but not as he did later!!! after bringing me home from spending the evening with Nan + Jean at his lovely big house. Still, I don't love him.

APRIL, 1921.

Saturday 30

Said good-bye to our house
+ everything in dear old Paget.
Nan brought me fudge + flowers to the dock + Betty brought sweet peas.
Jean, Elsie, Buster, Eunby, Lillie, Byl, Nellie, Lela and all, hundreds of people were on the dock.
I was very sorry to say goodbye to them all, dear people.
Luna Lincoln is sailing with me and we watched everything out of sight - then walked around the ship - memorable. Later we played bridge with Mr. + Mrs.
Lambert, etc. The Robinsons are sailing, too + we have a table together. I certainly do like Mr. Robinson. Played spelling games, etc. with Mr. Butthfield in the Lincoln branch. Bought

Rogation
Sunday

Sunday 1

Was allowed to have Vicky on the shelter deck so I walked around & around with her, exercising her. Then I wrote a letter to Kate.
Luncheon didn't taste very good - it's not young. And afterward I felt rather peppery & lay in my deck chair, but later Laura & I walked two miles around the shelter deck.
It is beginning to blow.
Ate good big dinner, almost equalling Mr. Crolius - we had some wine, too, when suddenly we got into a storm & every one got sick around us! But Laura & I & Mr. Harvey stuck by until late on the rolling deck.

MAY, 1921.

Monday 2

It calmed a little after the bad night, thru which I slept wonderfully. We were supposed to be in early but it was three before we docked.
There is such a lot of silly red tape such as the doctor's examination, the immigration and the customs - Dad & I walked by with a bottle of pooge in each hip pocket.
I nearly died once when he leaned over to open a trunk!
Took a taxi to the rooms Beau had gotten us. Vicky stayed with us in our room & the French woman kept her when we met Beau & went to Greenwich Village for supper at the Pig & Whistle. Good to see Beau again.

MAY, 1921.

Tuesday 3

Dad took Vickey home. Poor dear Vickey Van, how I hated to see her go. Mother & I went to a little restaurant near here for breakfast & then went down town & bought me a pair of shoes. We had a beautiful time dodging automobiles. Then we went to Miss Brooks at the Gotham for luncheon - very good - & saw Mrs. Martin there!! Afterward we walked in the Park with Miss B. & then took a bus ride & Cards at cousin M. Hop's & Miss Ward's. Later Beau took us to see "Sally" which was "hot stuff" as you'd say. Phil went with us - great to see him again but I'm not sure that I was thrilled.

MAY, 1921.

Wednesday 4

On the way to breakfast at the French place we saw Mrs. Cabot, back on the boat, and later I discovered that Beau knows both of them! Mother & I slept and had luncheon at the Mary Elizabeth, slept a little more & then went to the Metropolitan Museum & spent hours in that labyrinth - and then only saw quarter. Later Beau, Cand. and Phil & I and we all went to Greenwich Village to an Italian place to dinner - very good. When it poured but we sat at the table & talked till late & then came home in a taxi. Oh, for Bermuda weather!

MAY, 1921.

Ascension
Day. Thursday 5

How the stores seem to fascinate Mother & me but, oh, good, how much we had millions of dollars!! We lunched at the Mary Elizabeth again but I wasn't hungry - I'm in kind of a bad humor & I don't see why I haven't heard from Van - I wrote when we first came. Mother & I started for the museum on a bus but it was the wrong one & it took us way out of our way. When we finally got there we saw the Egyptian rooms. Great! Later Beau took us out to dinner & then to see "the first year" a perfectly ripping good play!!

MAY, 1921.

Friday 6

Mother & I did our daily turn of the shops, had lunch at the Mirror and then purposely got on a subway & went to the Bronx Zoo. It is a wonderful place & Mother & I wandered for hours among the animals from the four corners of the earth. Also we were very fond of the monchalant way we boarded subway trains. Beau took us to see at the Reg. Washington then we met Phil at the Piltown. We had intended to go somewhere to dance but were tired & just talked or rather Phil talked about 900's & proper things.

MAY, 1921.

Saturday 7

After breakfast at the French in room Mother & I went down town & did our last bit of shopping.
Then we went to Miss Ward's to a very good lunch. The Judge & Mrs. Bangs were there & it was interesting. The Ma & I didn't talk lunch - we never do. Later Mother & I took a bus ride, as Phil did not turn up to take me to the at the Plaza - all men are big but this wasn't his fault.
Then Mother & I had dinner down town & went to see "The Bat" - a terribly thrilling play. Had a great time walking alone on Broadway at midnight.

MAY, 1921.

Sunday after Ascension.

Sunday 8

Ma & I went to the church Beau goes to and sat in the Judge's pew. Betty Maffat's mother was there, too.
Then we took a bus ride & had dinner before we met Phil at the house. Then we three walked across the park to the museum of natural history. It was vitally interesting but my sleepiness so much that I felt like screaming so we came about & sat down then & then Phil & I walked in the park alone. Soon Beau came from Princeton and we four went to Reg. Maffington's dinner.
Then we sat in the Baltimore & Talbot - Phil's & my conversation bordering on the topics of Beau's!!

MAY, 1921.

Mother & I packed up & left little Mame. Kumballe and took a bus to the station where we had breakfast & boarded a train for Lancaster. We had to change at Phila. where I saw John Hartman in the station restaurant.
Dad met us in Lancaster & took us to Miss Sue's where we will spend the night. Went to Dr. Atties & got my ankle (hurt in Bermuda) bound & then met Charlotte & stopped in to see Tony & then well. Gee, it's wonderful to see every one again. E. & Jerry & I had a sundae & walk and walk & saw a number of the college boys. see mem.

MAY, 1921.

Tuesday 10

Saw dearest Vicky Van across the street with Dad and learned an awful tail - see mem. - then Mother & I again packed up & boarded a train - this time for Bellefonte.
Aunt Louis met us at Lock Haven & we had a lovely ride home. Every thing is just the same.
Had lemonade & cake on the porch. It is quite warm.
Then old Freddie came home & I scolded him for not having written to me. Sewing stopped in & we drove her home & then I saw Mary & Mabel & later Pete. After dinner the Lungs & Pete came & we talked but Fred did not take us riding.

MAY, 1921.

Wednesday 11

Mother & I share the guest room - worse luck. I unpacked and then went over to see Cousin Mary & Cousin Harriet. They're just the same. Parted dolls, wigs for Cousin Mary. Then I tried to make the acquaintance of Digby, the colona. In the afternoon I wrote to Buster & to Van & then went driving with Aunt. she dropped me at the pungs. After dinner I went with Fred & Mary & Pete to see pictures of the war - very good. Then we took a little ride & I wouldn't let Pete kiss me, and I left at Mary's for coffee & cake.

MAY, 1921.

Thursday 12

Wrote in this dear old diary - whom I had rather neglected. Then I started to read "Thread of Flame" by Basil King but Mary came along & we had quite a little chat. In the afternoon Mary & Maude and Ellis Heller came in & we played bridge - Ellis & I got beaten. Then Fred came. we had some gingerale & hermits. After supper, Fred and I went to the movies to see Kerrigan in "Coast of Opportunity" - a wild western. Then we went up to talk to Mother & her for. Fred found a gang there - Ellis, Fred, Pete and played tricks & wafed.

MAY, 1921.

Got to work to finish that fatigal dress which I began on a Friday and said, even then Mary came in. She stayed until Fred came but he was in such a rotten humor - she ran. In the afternoon Mabel & Ellis dropt in so I took them up to Mary's. We played bridge again this time Ellis & I winning. We had some angel food, and Fred came to take me home.
After din. we Mary, Fred & Pete & I drove to Lake Haven & the club house but it wasn't terribly thrilling. I washed again - first time since Apr. 4. Had coffee at Mary's Fred in bad humor.

MAY, 1921.

Saturday 14

Went down town with Mother, Aunt & and Mrs. Wood to look at some dresses at the Buch house. In the afternoon I had luncheon with Fred at Cousin Mary's
- very nice - and then Peter and I washed around making arrangements for a picnic while Fred played tennis. At about five Fred, Pete Bud & Mary, Mabel & I went down to Uncle's cabin at Fishing Creek and cooked a delicious supper. After ward we sat around talking & smoking. In going to make Bud crazy about me. In town at ten thirty & then up to the Shuffler's till twelve mother & I.

~~Sunday~~ Sunday 15

Went to church and afterwards walked up to the Post office with the Gings. Mr.
Maynard came to dinner.
He is an awfully nice man.
When he went I fooled around playing ar. & talking over to cream to Cousin Mary until Fred came in & we took an automobile ride - actually just the two of us. I told what I thought of his behavior with Mary, but I might as well have told it to the gas tank. Went up to the Gings to supper & they dropped me at Pete's while they went to church.
We played bridge there, but Fred & Mary didn't come up till late - I talked with Fred.

MAY, 1921.

~~Monday~~ Monday 16

Nemo watched and the puglet in company of Phil until Mary came & go down town with me. We had a soda & fooled around until Fred drove by & took us home. In the afternoon after a lively(?) luncheon with only Uncle Fred & Fred I played my mandolins & drew pretty ladies until Aunt A. asked me to go out in the car with her. Took Mother & Cousin Mary to my farm. Then I went up to the speakers to talk to Mord. L. but fooled around with the kids mostly. After supper I went to see Tom Moore in "Hold your Horses" with Bud Morris & went up to Mary's afterwards. Made Pete & cousins, I guess.

MAY, 1921.

Tuesday 17

Soled around, catbeddy until Aunt L. took me down town in the car with her. In the afternoon, I was afraid I'd repeat the same performance - then certainly isn't much to do here. I went driving with Mother & Aunt L. - a lovely drive, stopping at Bogalaburg & talk to the old ladies. Then I went up to the Shuffers & had a good talk with Mrs. S.
Mary came to dinner & irritated Fred. We three & Pete then went to the church ruins & just afterward after much arguing Fred took us for a ride. It was a rather gloomy party. I do not even like Pete's kisses. Fred kissed me very much & rather strenuously.

MAY, 1921.

Wednesday 18

Soled around again until Mabel came to walk away out to the dress makers with me.
We stopped at Fred's office & had him bring us home. In the afternoon I intended to go out driving with the family but went over to stay with Cousin Mary in Aunt L.'s stead.
Sat there & talked to the dear invalid for an hour & a half.
Then I went up to the Shuffers' where Fred soon appeared. In the evening the Daiglys, Shuffers, Bud & Ellis came to make 2 tables of bridge. Supper at toward all a very nice party.
Ellis & I beat. I beat Bud at my table & made Pete jealous.

MAY, 1921.

Thursday 19

Mary & Ellis - I mean Mabel & Ellis came in for me to go down town & after we had finished our shopping we got meat & went down to the stream & fed the trout until Ted went by & took us home. In the afternoon Mary & Mabel came in & after I had done a little sewing we walked out to Ted's office - I carried my dear old Bermuda cane! & brought us home. In the evening Bud came to see me. Ted & Mary went to choir practice & Ted did not return as he had promised to take us a ride - Gee, I was mad. But I really did not care for it & sat on the dark porch & he kissed me most passionately.

MAY, 1921.

Friday 20

Made the green satin dress & pressed my brown & gold dress & wear tonight and went down town with Aunt. In the afternoon, finishing the dress, I gave it on & showed it to Cousin Mary & the Shufflers - Ellis & Pete were up then! I'm still mad outwardly at Ted as I left before he came & made an elaborate toilet for tonight. After dinner Bud & Pete came & we got Mary & little Sarah Ray & went to the Academy minstrels - very good then we went to the dance which lasted until four! Pete & I took a lovely ride at about three. Later we had coffee etc at Mary's. Had a time working both Pete & Bud. Daylight before I got home at 5.

MAY, 1921.

Saturday 21

Muddled some clothes & then made a sport hat. As it was not finished I took it over to Cousin Mary's where Fred & I went over there to lunch. After that we got away & got the canoe together to go to Fishing Creek & a picnic. Heine & I went with Peter in the ford. Ellis tried to fish but in vain. Cooked an awfully good supper & then sat around the fire & smoked. Soon Bud & I left to take a walk. He kissed me most excitedly, both standing up & lying down on the pine needles. It was just twilight. Returned to camp fire & soon Pete & I left to sit in the ford. After while I told him I was not going to let him kiss me any more! Heine drove home with us.

MAY, 1921.

Trinity Sunday.

Sunday 22

Went to church & then Heine walked up to Mahuli with me to get her to come & have dinner with us. After dinner Peter appeared & we got Mary & the five of us went to the Mason's camp for a swim. Pete & I went under some bushes in the boat & he kissed me against all my good resolutions. Storm came while we were dressing. Went to our house & had supper in the kitchen. Bud soon appeared & Pete wouldn't leave & things would have been unpleasant if Fred had not taken us all out driving & then dropped Pete & Mahul. Bud & I sat in the dark porch & he kissed me terribly & put his hand up-up-up under my dress & got me so excited I nearly died. I kissed it & so did he.

MAY, 1921.

Started in to pack + run errands for Aunt + Ma the minute I woke up. Mary Mabel + Ellis came + we went down town + had a milk shake. Dad + he drove me up to Cousin Mary's + to the Sheffers + say good-bye. After luncheon Mother, Aunt L. + I drove to Rock Haven + all three took the train there for Lancaster + Aunt L. for Philadelphia. Spent most of the time, hated to say good-bye to Aunt L. Well met me at the train + I went to her house to stay. Dad was at the train, too. He + Ma at the Hartman's. After dinner Well + I went with the four boys to see Alice Brady in the "N. Y. Idea" - rather well + I talked in bed!!

MAY, 1921.

Empire Tuesday 24

Went to school with Well and took the dogs with me. They got into several fights. Went up to Mrs. Hartman's to see Ma + Pa + then went out to the Hopkins's in the Packard with them. Mary H. has a lovely trousseau. In the afternoon Charlotte came here + we had luncheon with us and afterward we played the piano + until time to meet Well at school. I bought an ankle brace + then we got Dr. Appel's for a him + I drove it. I was scared stiff but somehow I didn't scratch anything. In the evening I read magazines, stories + talked to Mrs. Appel. Well didn't sleep with me.

MAY, 1921.

Wednesday 25

Wrote in your old diary and foiled around with my possessions until Mrs. Appel was ready to go down town.
Met mother in a store & said
"howdoo"! In the afternoon Mell & I read & wrote tood letters & makes invitations to a flower show until we got up enough nerve to take the doctor's little Ford out riding. I slipped Mell away to run it & squeaked and got so nervous that when I got home I was deathly sick and couldn't eat my dinner. Chilled up enough to go with Charlotte, Henry Snyder & "Barnie" to a cheap bazaar & laugh there & to Rocky Springs to dance. Had dinner at Charlotte's. <sup>Had at Charlotte's.</sup>

MAY, 1921.

Thursday 26

Said good-bye to Mell when she went to school. Took some clothes to the dressmaker to put in mother's bag. Charlotte came & she & Mrs. Appel went down to the train with me. Hated to go. Had luncheon in Pullman & did some shopping there.
Saw Elizabeth Miller, M.C.S. at the Bellevue. On the train again, almost I was riding with Mell & nearly grabbed some hat in front of me - thought I had wheel. Dad met us at St.
Louis City. Dad brought us to his boarding house - my first experience in such - Dad takes too much in public. Washed on soap & water & went to bed. Early in my trip I was overlooking the ocean.

MAY, 1921.

Friday 27

Slept until very late and ate breakfast in bed. Then I unpacked my trunk & settled my affairs. Met some of the boarding house people - no one very attractive and after lunch the meals weren't bad. I wrote to Jean & Mrs. Apple then Mother & I took a ride in a wheel chair on the boardwalks & saw all the sights. After dinner I was too lazy to go to the movies so I read Saturday Evening Post stories & went to bed early. Got a letter from Dad yesterday when I got here. He isn't half bad.

MAY, 1921.

Saturday 28

Mother brought my breakfast up to me and later we went down the boardwalk looking at the shops. Came to one very bravely in a jiffy! In the afternoon I sewed, framed pictures, and got my room ready for Beau. Dad & I started to meet him but went for a soda instead! He came out last and immediately suggested sea ocean swim! So I had to go in with him in that freezing water. It was great tho.
After dinner we took a long walk down the Boardwalk & Beau took me on a pier & showed me how to surf. Then we all went to the opening of the Ruddy was announced Pop. Beau & I did the roller coaster it is new & quite sometimes.

MAY, 1921.

1st after
Trinity. Sunday 29

Breakfast in bed has now become an established habit. Later Beau & I took a jitney to the middle of the Rd walk & walked toward the inlet. I never saw so many Jews in all my life. Then we jitted back to the house & got into our suits and went down on the dirty beach. How unlike dear Bermuda! Beau stood on his head etc. Water too cold for a long swim. After dinner Beau & Mattie & I took a walk & a chair ride on the Rd walk looking at the crowds. Later they all went out & I had "found of the Beachwalkers" by some boy.

MAY, 1921.

Monday 30

It is raining and it is Decoration day! I served all morning till just before dinner when Beau & Mattie & I went out on the boardwalk for a "sprint." In the afternoon as it cleared up a little Beau & I went to the steps near pier and did absolutely nothing & he dove! We slid down steps & walked thru garden to the beach. Beau was like a kid & I could hardly get him away from it all. I actually won a prize at a Ventnor Derby! After supper Beau had to leave & return to U.S. I read & tried not to be bothered by boarding house wife.

MAY, 1921.

Tuesday 31

Took care of our candle in cunning baby boy Clement.
Mother was ready to go out and then we forgot nearly the whole length of the B'd walk looking for graduation present for Nell & Mary. We got home dead tired but after luncheon we started out again & this time accomplished our task.
Mother & I sat on the B'd walk for a long time, talking.
I tried to write a letter to Van & to see it up!
After supper I was troubled by restlessness & might have gotten desperate if one of the men had not comforted me a moment.

JUNE, 1921.

Wednesday 1

Washed my hair before I was fully dressed and sat out in the back yard in the sun to dry it. In the afternoon I got a letter-writing bug and sat down & wrote to Pete, Bud, Bob and Van without stopping, banding them all the same lines this in a different manner. Bob's was to acknowledge his wedding invitation! Then Mother & I sat on the B'd walk & I sewed indistractively on Mary's pillow case. After this I read magazines in the boarding house parlor. I'm beginning to get on how long Dad will stand this life. Aunt Nell Harri is very sick & may die. Poor dear.

JUNE, 1921.

Thursday 2

Letters from Jean & Nan - each typical of the writer, as much so that I felt happy all day. I sat on the boardwalk with Mother and actually finished her stitching that pillow case! In the afternoon Mother & I went down town to do some shopping & stopped at Mr. Palle's delicatessen for some ice cream & cake. He boarded at this house. Then I came home & made the pillow for the cover I finished. In the evening I read "The Millionaires" by Julian Ralph until Capt. & Mrs. Palmer came in. They are a very delightful funny couple & helped us carrying all our things!

JUNE, 1921.

Friday 3

Letter from Ted - had to read it twice to get its full value. Worked awfully hard on a little thing I have to re-please my wardrobe perfectly before leaving this life of stagnation. In the afternoon Mother, Dad & I took a trolley ride from one end of the island to the other. I am going to the hotel. Then I came home & washed under clothes - as high as my ambition carried me. In the evening, still working, I started to answer letters but was interrupted by Emma Van Hook (!!!) and her mother calling. She wants to bring up memories! Did finish a letter to Sam.

JUNE, 1921.

Saturday 4

The Van Kleeces asked us to go shopping, so off we went in their car. I did lots of shopping. In the afternoon Lenna & I had to wait ages for her mother to go down town with us again. I mailed Mary H's present - off, at last! Then I had to take a jitney & go at break-neck speed to the Ambassadors to see Louis Rex & Mary Potter. Then Dad told me that dear Aunt Nell died this morning. Isn't it very sad? So he had to go to Lancaster tonight. Mother & I sat in our rooms & I wrote to Skinny, Edith and Olivia. Got a nice letter from Bud today.

The Van Kleeces asked us to go to church with them, so off we went to the All Saints Episcopal. Good sermon on Love but I felt evil-minded and could not keep my mind on that kind of love. Then we got rid of them & came home. In the afternoon we sat in our room and read until later when we took a brisk walk on the R'd walk. This is a very long day.

After supper we went to our rooms again and I fixed my memory books up to date. Forgot to mention Mrs. Polk (boarder here) having asked us to go out to see Jack O'Connell, the fighter this afternoon.

JUNE, 1921.

a letter from Dad says dear Aunt Nellie is not to be buried until Wednesday. Mother & I shall not go to the funeral, nevertheless, too expensive. Went over to the boardwalk for a quiet morning of coloring & there found the Van Klecks - if it were only the Van Klecks! In the afternoon Mother went to the dentist & I smoked a cigarette in my room & became frightfully sick at my time, but it went. Recovered in time to join down town walk home with Mother. Very restless after supper but settled down finally in Mother's bed & read "Bulldog Drummond".

JUNE, 1921.

Tuesday 7

Worked very hard on a tulle hat and when I had finished I went in search of Mother whom I found with the Van Klecks. Emma & I took a stroll on the B'd walk. In the afternoon I was mending a georgette dress when I got a "ripping" letter from Jean so I immediately wrote to the old girl. Also wrote to Nana. Just as I finished in came Emma, she had been there before but I had not heard her, so busy was I telling scandal to Jean. After supper Mother & I took a short walk and then crept down to read my "Bulldog Drummond" by Cyril Ma. Noice.

JUNE, 1921.

Wednesday 8

Got some pictures from the Wyckoff of our picnic (Apr. 18) which Mother did not like! Got tired sewing early & then finished my book - now I wish I hadn't! In the afternoon I did a little sewing and then wrote to Charlotte, who is being operated on & to Kate. Emma came in and interrupted me as usual. After supper Mother & I were rather expecting Dad - I felt restless & could not think of a darn thing I wanted to do. Later he came with news of dear Aunt Nell's funeral. He brought me an engagement ring - but I don't believe I like bequeathments.

JUNE, 1921.

Thursday 9

Dad said last night that he is giving my darling Pichie to the Hopkins! I sewed until time to get Emma & go down town to meet Mother. We did a little shopping, taking up a lot of time and they came home. In the afternoon I sewed madly. Did as afraid this stroke of work will leave me before everything is in order. After supper I wrote to Aunt Maud & to Charlotte and then took a stroll on the boardwalk with Emma - when we got back we had newspaper folders & every thing in effort to find something to do.

JUNE, 1921.

Friday 10

Once more I attacked my sewing basket and with the help of Mrs. Shafer's machine finished all the sewing I have to do! Such a queer feeling it brings to have everything in perfect order! In the afternoon I sat on the porch and talked to Mrs. Stegman (boarder) about dogs until Emma came for me to take a walk. We walked for miles down the Bidwell & back & sang at some music which I hope will be popular. After dinner Emma again appeared & I almost shouted in dismay but I got rid of her later & wrote Charlotte a nice letter to Fred.

Saturday 11

Mattie & I walked to the Marlborough and there met Mrs. Hartman, Kitty & Louella, John's wife. The five wandered into the stores & auction sales all morning. My, it was nice to be with some people for a while. In the afternoon I tried to patch a wooden box and then did a little mending and afterwards read "Gentleman of France" by Stanley Weyman. After dinner I wrote to Jane about Vicky and later played five hundred with Mrs. Shafer, Mrs. Stegman & Mother. It was an exciting game & passed the evening quickly.

3rd after
Trinity. Sunday 12

Went to the All Saints church with the family. It is absolutely stifling hot.
After dinner we sat on the porch and just gasped for breath. I managed to write a few letters - to Charlotte, John Allen and Bud Moore.
But I'm afraid they were pretty dull letters. Then I read & read & read, my chair got harder & harder & I got hotter & hotter - but reading was all I was good for. Now & then I would stop & make up love stories of Bellefonte & places I'd like to be in.

Monday 13

Jolly old letter from Spinnin-Brook.
Went over to Emma Van Kleeck & then bethought me of some work and dragged her over here while I tried to sew lace on a dirty waist before the washerwoman arrived. Later we took a walk on the beach.

In the afternoon I read and slept & got mad at Mother because she made me go over & sit on the boardwalk. I'm getting so tired of having nothing to do I could choke most any one. In the evening wrote to Charlotte & to Phil. I hope it has a good effect on the latter.

JUNE, 1921.

Tuesday 14

Another wonderful letter from Fred. Hurried to dress to go with the family & the Van Kleeces but they sailed off without me! Gee, I was mad! I sat on the porch & finished my bath & calmed down somewhat. In the afternoon I argued with Emma until finally she went down town with me to the library & then to eat a éclair in a café!! I waited for her on the B'd walk while she did an errand but again I was left! I was reading "Sixth Sense" by Stephen M. Kelly & did not mind so much. Later I wrote to Ch. & to Aunt Louis & read.

JUNE, 1921.

Wednesday 15

Mr. Shafer - our landlady - had a stroke of paralysis! I went down town with the Van K's and we went to a concert demonstration with living models, it was interesting but rather long. In the afternoon I finished the "Sixth Sense" - very good and started to walk with Dad & Mother but it was too hot so I dropped in a drug store & got a malted milk malted. After supper Emma & I took a long walk and later I went with her & her mother to see Marguerite Courtot & Jane Laprice in "Rogues & Romances" a good movie of Spanish life.

JUNE, 1921.

Thursday 16

Dad took some snapshots of me & sent to Jean, Bud, etc and after I fixed some lace in a pattern for Mother Dad & I went down town and went to every store & was in search of shoes to suit both Dad's price & my feet - is possible. In the afternoon I had a head ache & slept & fooled around while Pa washed his hair. After supper I took a walk with Emma & a trained nurse, declined the movie with them & came home to read Phillips' expression's "Jacob's Ladder". I dreamed very realistically about Buster.

Friday 17

Letter from John after in first mail - he seems to be growing up! I played with baby Clement, who by the way, is adopted, on the porch until I discovered "Lusie" then I sat quietly & read - & thought of my dream which must have been caused by what I saw or going suddenly into Mother & Dad's room at night - I always knew it was done & yet it surprised me. I got a nice letter from Phil & later one from Bud & one from Mary Louisa. Mary's amused me - so much so that I answered it immediately. I read all day, finishing my book & then starting a serial in the Post - "Mile High" by H. C. Rowland.

JUNE, 1921.

Saturday 18

Slept rather late and then sat on the porch and read. In the afternoon I went over to see Emma and she gave me some nice letters to read from "inner" men and giggled & made me so mad that I soon came home to my books again. I'm been reading magazine stories, about mother's who don't grow old, etc. After supper I read on the porch until the moon came up & caused me to think over my past! I never can make out whether I am a dunghill or a very clever girl!

Went to All Saints - with the family - service there to dedicate a beautiful window. Walked on the Boardwalk after church & saw Jack Dempsey, the prize fighter. In the afternoon I read & played with little Clement until Mother & Dad went down town & I went with them. We walked home. Later Dad went to Kansas on business. Emma came over & we played my mandolite & tried to be congenial but we just didn't. Later I was reading when Mr. Folk came in - dead drunk! He is awful. Wrote to Peter just before bed.

JUNE, 1921.

Monday 20

Good old letter from Nan.
Started to walk down town with Mother but met the Van Rips & they drove us down. Then we walked home and stopped at many shops. It makes one diplomatic to be poor & have to look for bargains! Wrote to Dad. In the afternoon we hurried down to the station to meet Mrs.
Gloringer & Timmie, the dog. They are at a boarding house near here. After supper I met Emma & her man who is visiting her. Met!
Read all evening "Lighting" by Frank Bacon. Story of play.

JUNE, 1921.

Tuesday 21

Got up early to do some thinning exercises. Emma came in to say good-bye - so sorry! Then Mother came up with the news that Fred & Mary have eloped! I could only gasp! He was mad - Fred! Certainly is a master hypocrite - damn him! Met Mrs. Gloringer & we three walked for miles on the boardwalks to buy a little perfume bottle to send for Kate's birthday. In the afternoon I found my mind working on a new wonder tale - out on the boardwalks later. Dad came home & brought me some nice shoes. Letter from Aunt Lucie telling of the blow & reconciliation.
Wrote to Fred & Mary & to Aunt L.

JUNE, 1921.

Wednesday 22

Before I was fully dressed the trunk came from Aunt Maud with Aunt Kelly's & her clothes in it. It is a wonder I was ever dressed this morning - so many lovely dresses & hats to try on. Went down on the B'd walk for a little while before luncheon. In the afternoon I got a nasty letter from Kate calling me a snobish! Then I went driving with Capt. & Mrs. Palmer, Mother & Mrs. Glouinger. It was lovely - I sat with the Capt. who is weird! He made us walk in the woods etc!! Read & wrote to Aunt Maud, Mrs. Huffer & Phil in the evening.

JUNE, 1921.

Thursday 23

Did my exercises as usual and then took my hair out of curlers & tried to make it look better - no success. I sewed on some of the dresses Aunt Maud sent. In the afternoon I got all dressed up & went down town with Mother. Walked home on the walk and met Mrs. Glouinger. Sat & watched the styles. Got a funny letter from Rebecca. Little Donald & Mrs. Stearns left today - so very. After dinner I sewed until dark & then read & thought how nice it would be to be married to Phil! I'm rather tired of life as it is.

JUNE, 1921.

Friday 24

I'm still stiff from my springing.
Got a letter from Emma - after all I did to squelch her! It is absolutely stiffling hot today. I sat on the porch & gazed for breath. Pulled the pads to her & took two pillow cases for Aunt Louise.

In the after-noon I went out to Mrs. Palmer's with Mother & Mrs. Glaninger. I went merely to get food & they didn't have any! Boo, too, too!

After supper we sat on the boardwalk until it got cooler & then Mother & I took a walk for exercise.
I don't pleasantly of indulging in - I think it was quite moist.

JUNE, 1921.

Saturday 25

Exercised - got letter from Phil on subject of Fred & Mary - he agrees with me.
Mother & I walked down the walk and bought a
"dome" for my little powderbox made of Aunt Betty's first watch. In the afternoon we sat on the walk & served - I on Aunt's pillow cases. In the evening Mrs. Glaninger treated Mother & me to a lovely two-hour chair ride on the walk. We certainly saw every variety of human being - but no one we knew. It's a sight seen no where else. I treated to ice cream afterward. Pay evening for me!

JUNE, 1921.

5th after Trinity.

Sunday 26

Seven exercises on Sunday. It is raining - a rainy Sunday - ugh! Went to church with the family & then brought a Saturday eve. Post! Read that most of the afternoon. Later it cooled off & cleared up so I walked down the walk all by my self. It made me mad & optics were many men looked at me with horrible suggestive glances. That did finally I felt more at home with the world. After supper I read & wrote to Buddy. I'm getting melancholy again - would just as soon be dead.

JUNE, 1921.

Monday 27.

Got a rather stupid letter from Pete. Dad & Mother got a thriller from Beau - that is - he asked if I'd like to come with him next week! and! Rejoice! If only that wabob doesn't change his unchangeable mind. Mother, Mrs. G. Loring & I rode to the top of the walk & walked home looking at all the shops. In the afternoon I sat on the back porch & sewed & played with baby. I read a little. After supper I started to read "The Red Lady" by H. R. W. I could hardly lay it down & go to bed.

one week of exercising!

Tuesday 28

got up with the intention of going soon morning but Dad would not + so disarranged my plans. I went to the walls + sat in a gavillon with Mrs. Elton-hager + I'm in until later mother + Dad came.
I finished my Thurling
bag. In the afternoon I went out +
mother was ready to take a walk. She told me about the ring I am going to get on my birth day. After dinner I was tired + then read
"Suffering husbands" by Wallace Brown. I have no desk in this room - my writing

JUNE, 1921.

Wednesday 29

No mail - how that fact, darkens a whole day! I washed my hair which mother was moving into a back room, without a bath. But we don't stay long now. Then I sat in the yard + sunned. In the afternoon I fixed over one of Aunt Maud's dresses + then got up + I tried to take a walk with Helen + Mrs. G. but they didn't want to.
Finally however they did start to the walls + we saw part of an Elton parade. After dinner
I was tired + then read
Dad was too late. I went over + asked Mrs. Hall about a room for the boys. Read until bedtime

JUNE, 1921.

Thursday 30

got a fine letter from Mrs. Shaffer. She doesn't understand Fred & Mary either. It is a very wet day - not rain just fog sat on the porch sewing. Mrs. Polk carved a dear little monkey out of a peach stone & gave it to me. In the afternoon I sewed & read. Mrs. Palmer came to call on Mother & Mrs. J. After supper I read of little book on Calumet etc that Mr. Polk gave me & was glad when M. & Mrs. J. suggested walking - in the house all day. We had ice cream & quite a party. Mrs. J. is leaving.

JULY, 1921.

Friday 1

Mended some clothes & <sup>(Residents abroad should now order this Diary for 1922)</sup> polished in my room all morning. Clothes seem to wear out even doing nothing. In the afternoon Mother & I went walking. Saw two men being rescued from the roaring old ocean - great excitement. Found Dad & Mrs. Polk on the walk coming to me & sat & talked to them for a while. After supper I wrote to Mary & to dear Emma. Took a slight stroll with the family & went to bed early & dreamt of the good times I shall have with Phil.

JULY, 1921.

Saturday 2

Telegram saying Phil can not come! With that the whole bottom dropped out of my day. Got a letter from my homesick Jean in Canada.
Sat on the porch sewing & watching the Jews arrive. Ugh! In the afternoon it poured
— I slept until almost time for Beau's arrival.
Glad he came any how.
Walked alone to the library Glick Drumpsey beat Carpenter (French) in the big fight. Beau & I walked down the Old walls & shot at one of the bastions. Later met the family at the Ambassadors listening to concert.

6th after Trinity.

Sunday 3

Dressed in my suit when I got up - slept in Dad's bed last night - or rather - didn't sleep. Finally got the family down on the beach & Mrs.
Palk, too. There were crowds in bathing. The water was fine but very dirty. No one no stockings & were enough.
one of the guards pointed to them in the distance! In the afternoon Beau and I walked down to the "Red Pie" & sat on it listening to the music & watching the crowds - such crowds!!
After supper I talked to the family till mother & Beau Asleep I stroll then I read Sat. Ev. Post until time to retire & Dad's bed.

one who is in a better position to help me up

Monday 4

got awake feeling queer - the thought of any thing to do sort of paralyzed me. And the first thing I knew I was crying most hysterically - twice I had an "outburst". It is suffering lost. Not long after I was dressed, & I got ready to go bathing with Oscar. Mrs.
& Ernest, boarder, introduced me to her niece - Betty addison. Young but nice. After a big dinner Oscar & I went to see scenes of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight - splendid!
On the way home we shot at one of the boarder's & kept our targets - brought home with practice. Later Dad & Oscar left & Mother & I watched a few fireworks on beach.

JULY, 1921.

Tuesday 5

Slept rather late as it is a rainy day & I have nothing to do. Read a little while before dinner.
Read "Wild Honey" by Gertrude Stein and later "Mollie" & "Turret down town".
but all we accomplished was the consumption of a smallish milk! And then we got caught in the rain & had to huddle home. Got an interesting letter from Edie de B. & her After supper I wrote &
read & wrote a rather impersonal letter to Aunt Louise.
Then I played what seemed like millions of records for Mr.
Shaper who has lived here a while and came home later.

JULY, 1921.

Wednesday 6

Went down the walks with the family, Mother & I each looking for lace - found my garter.
Then I had my first mile shake for beginning my birthday. I'm going to give them up for a whole year!! Hea!
In the afternoon I sat in the seclusion of my room rather than on the living porch & made a very intricate lace collar. Mother sat with me. After supper I talked to little Edith & Rose - boarded & wrote to R. & to B. & & then read short stories.

The happiest birthday yet!

JULY, 1921.

Thursday 7

Woke to find a marvelous diamond ring flashing in my face & Mother & Dad flashing behind it! It is a wonder I can hardly believe it is mine. When I finally was dressed I sat on the porch & walked around the block with Mrs. Stewart. At dinner time I got fine letters from Aunt & Ed & Mary! She sent me a check for $4.00!! I nearly collapse!
Aren't they too good to me?
Took a long walk with Mother on the sidewalks, showing off my ring & trying to think how to spend the fifty. After supper I got a special from Kate with a lovely hankie & still later a sp. from Pete. <sup>little Clement gave</sup> me flowers & I had a birthday cake.

JULY, 1921.

Friday 8

Mended some clothes and finally went over to a pavilion & sat down sewing with Mother. In the afternoon Betty Addis and I walked down town & then had a soda before going to see Elaine & Ashme to their in "Miracle of Manhattan". In the way home in a store we saw a fire & I went to see the fire, it was just a very bad one. I like Miss Addis very much - she is - being but boring. After supper I sewed & read "St. Paul's & Lucile" by Miss W. Putnam. Not a bad thing about colored women in bed & with. etc.

JULY, 1921.

Saturday 9

Betty called up for me as a wake to ask me to go to the Country Club. So I did some sewing & drove out to the Sea View C.C. with Mrs. Addis & Mr. & servant. We left them there & had nice drive home. Then we went in the old dirty ocean. Mr. Polls went with us - he, he, he. I had introduced me to M. D. is Mont, a Frenchie. In the afternoon I sewed until Beau came. He sent me two lovely pairs of silk stockings. Then I went out to the C.C. - about 15 miles - again with Betty & brought the men home. After supper Beau walked me for miles ending up at 8 o'clock.

JULY, 1921.

7th after Trinity.

Sunday 10

Wore a renovated dress of Aunt Maud's. Went to church with the whole family. Walked on walk and met Cousin Howard Smith & Maybloss and Aunt Mary, also Cousin Ray put in his appearance. Quite a family gathering. In the afternoon I read news papers until it cooled off & Beau & I walked to below the Steel Pier & watched the bathers. After supper I wrote to Kate & then Beque & I went to the Ambassador to buy a Sub. eye post but stayed to hear the concert. Miss Moricell of Grand Opera sang.

JULY, 1921.

Monday 11

Got a letter from Olivia in America. Thought she was in Italy. Went in bathing with Betty & Beau. The water was great - had lot of fun diving & turning somersaults. In the afternoon Martha, Beau & I took a trolley to Longport where we walked along the seawall - saw where a terrific storm damaged it. Also ate ice cream cones. After supper I cleaned & they attended myself to bed when Betty came in & asked me to go for a chair ride with her. Had lot of fun - especially with josh-ticks to keep away mosquitoes. Went to other places.

JULY, 1921.

Tuesday 12

lived on the porch until persuaded to go down to the Walk. Then I had to walk on the sand with Bean in an eastern suit. A most tiring job.
In the afternoon again after much persuasion - it is such a sunny perfect day - I took a very long walk on the Walk with Bean. We did some shopping + lost at a target - I did very well better than last time.
Then we visited the Garden Pier + Irving Pier + did every thing supposed to be done!
After dinner Bean + I + Betty went to the Rink + I tried all the stunts there. I laughed all I could.

JULY, 1921.

Wednesday 13

It is still very hot + we had over a week of this weather.
I sat on the porch sewing + talking to Mrs. Duntiss.
In the afternoon Bean
+ I went to the Steel Pier with Leslie Dotts - boarder + his girl rather common but good fun. We listened to the music + then danced.
Leslie is a good dancer + very susceptible to girls but somewhat. I've lost the desire to dance. After dancing I stayed in my room until Leslie + Bean had gone + then I wrote to Gennie + read a lot + in the evening I tried to get up to go to Betty's but I managed to evade her.

JULY, 1921.

Thursday 14

Went in swim ring with Bea & little Betty.
Later, much to my joy,
Betty came in & we gaily in & out the waves with a bunch of giggles. In the afternoon Mrs.
Burtis loaned me her oil paints & I drew a lovely head on a wooden box I have. I knew almost nothing about it, but did quite well - if I say it myself! After dinner, L.
Betty borrowed my maracas! - & never asked me to play! Later Bea & I walked to the library & back - there some wind blowing!

JULY, 1921.

Friday 15

Got Mrs. Burtis to show me how to embroider dots & got to work on them on my pillowcase for bed.
In the afternoon we hopped off to the theatre to see the new play "The Spite Brides". It was very good. Frank & I were the authors were there, Mr.
Burtis was a good & it began to pour! We had dinner & sat in the theatre. Finally we took a taxi & went home.
We are the whole family.
Still pouring pitchforks after supper as the whole boarding house stayed at home. I managed to start W. & Lockie's "Mountaineer".

JULY, 1921.

Saturday 16

lived on my dots - all morning in a pile of many urgent invitations to go swimming. In the afternoon I served until Beane & I started out with the intention of meeting L. Betts at the Steel Pier. But we watched Beane in bathing, & we shot & clasp & so that we never met him! Ha, ha! After supper Beane & I went with Betty & her brother Roland to the Steel Pier, we saw everything, including Madge Kennedy in "Girl with the Jazz Heart" a movie. There were crowds everywhere. Roland is very nice.

JULY, 1921.

Trinity. Sunday 17

Went to church with the family & then went in a spin with practically the whole boarding house & Miss Bell. In the afternoon Mother, Beane & I went over & sat in a pavilion but after while the little Frenchman, Mr. du Mont took me for a nice long walk. He is a good natured, he is a perfect English gentleman. After supper Dad left for Panama as usual. After Beane & I went to the "Dance" & then went into the City Barton to hear the music & see the Jew & diamond

JULY, 1921.

Monday 18

During my fairing I got the most awful cramp
- absolutely child birth could not be worse! Got letter from "Charly" tells Kate to keep me up. Sewed violently on my pillow cases - finishing them! After lunch I pressed them & tied them up. Then I discovered the case - never to be. I journeyed down town with Dean to mail them & then sat in a pavilion reading. I managed to journey home with him instead of walking after supper. I finished R. J. Locke's "Mount-bank" & watched people on walk.

JULY, 1921.

Tuesday 19

Mother & I had breakfast together in her room - quite a love feast. I stayed in bed till quite late in the afternoon. I sat in my room & painted wonderful Houlan stripes on a plain damask. I saw Gare Mother. She sat with me. Later I took a little nap & then sat & wrote & wrote. I read all evening, too.
I wish I would get a letter from Van - not because I want to hear from him, but because I want to be the one who does it answers. But - why worry.

JULY, 1921.

Wednesday 20

Stayed in bed again till quite late and then read. In the afternoon I took a nap - read and reported time generally. After supper I found myself helpless to do any thing but go with Lolie Belto & Beau to the Hotel. Pies. We first tried to get a girl for Beau but in vain. At the pier we met a friend of Lolie - they also with out a girl - so poor souls we had some little job dancing with three boys in a balling room! Lolie is so accepted!

JULY, 1921.

Thursday 21

Got up very positively early, about ten - and went down town with Mother to do a little shopping. In the afternoon Beau & I walked all the way to the end of the boardwalk. We kept pace & I actually shot him down! He said, "Oh, I am under." Came home in the street car - but not before Beau suggested walking home! After dinner I stayed on the walk till mosquitoes ate me & then came home to read Mrs. Ward's "Helena".

JULY, 1921.

Friday 22

Said I was going in the room just wanted changes my plans & I had the what was making express gracefully - Oh, eye, why can't we tell the truth outright? In the afternoon Mrs.
Stewart took Betty & me & Eliz. Meuse & Mildred Eisenbauer, very attractive and young, to the movies - Constance Bain was in "Such a Little Queen" - very good - then to the Ambassador Hotel to tea. Beaulieu & Louis B. came in & danced with us. After dinner Beaulieu & I & Leslie & Miss Maynard the Steel Pier & danced & danced - but never again. Scope - the it was not.

JULY, 1921.

Saturday 23

I stayed in bed till bathing time & then went in with L. Betts, the Frenchman Beaulieu, Jimmy & the weavers & Eleanor Robb and some of others. In the afternoon I went with Mrs. Stewart & Betty in the Packard to meet Mr. & Mrs. King & then to get Island Adelle at the club. Mr. & Mrs. King & I like Rob. Later Betty &
I went to the movies - James C. Smith's "What Every Woman Knows". After supper I intended to stay with the family but Mr. Stewart took me for a chair ride again & we talked friends.
Then Dad treated us all to ice cream & cake.

Sunday 24

found my places changed according to church. I went in bathing suit.
Bean, Mr. & Mrs. Stewart
& R. Adair & his friend & others all went in to get some gay happy thing like Mr. Stewart; he reminds me of Mr. Adair in Miami. After dinner & much discussion we decided to go in again. but we had just had much fun - I believe in leaving to dine!
After supper dear old
was sorry to say goodbye. Mother & I walked then I read & went to bed & went to bed

JULY, 1921.

Mother & I went to the library in steaming heat! - the sun simply beat upon us. In the afternoon I was passing in my mind about what to do, when Mr.
Stewart dropped in to give me two dollars
won along the boardwalk - we claimed them for him. Chap & I came soon after he left I unexpectedly got an invitation to go driving with Mrs. Brown, Mrs.
& Stewart's mother. Very nice on a hot day. After supper I read Est. Post & went for ice cream & cake with mother.

JULY, 1921.

Tuesday 26

Very undecided about going in swim ring - finally decided to wash down hair - which jockies took all morning. In the afternoon
I went up to see
Betty. We sat & chatted about every thing under the sun - pretty nearly of course not our favourite topic. I tried to do a little sewing for Mother. Then we were very busy. In the evening I looked at the book Betty & you have been doing. I was in "The Angelus" business.
It was rather "violent" but

Wednesday 27

Betty all of a sudden said she "didn't want to go in" swim ring. So I went in with little Adelle & Rose, boarder, & had lots of fun.
We took little baby Clement in - & true to his kind he very interestedly patted my bosom!
In the afternoon I helped Mother to sew until time to go to the All Saints Church Fair. We bought some candy, books & a rag doll for Clement - did not stay long, but returned to our sitting. After dinner I wrote to Nell, writing myself there & to Kate.
Then I read a very good story about a beautiful prize

JULY, 1921.

Thursday 28

Adelle + I went in the ocean again and had great sport diving &
mushing in on the waves.
In the afternoon Betty
& I went to see Pauline Frederick in "Roads to Destiny". It was rather good. Then we had ice cream + jugged home. No excitement today as we generally have.
After dinner Mother + I took a walk on the beach. Then I read
"The Law" by Cynthia.
A lovely, a South African story. This morning I got a letter from Leslie Bates
- on blue paper, too!

JULY, 1921.

Friday 29

Helped Mother with her sewing and read. In the afternoon Miss Lily Bell + Miss Wickelham came to call on Mother.
After awhile we decided to walk home with them but a storm came up suddenly + we got home just in time.
Then I read + read all evening. And finally went to bed wishing very much that I had some man to love
+ to love me. I am getting quite old + no sign of my ideal. What if I never meet the big handsome, athletic, wise fellow

Saturday 30

Adelle came up to my room while I was in a most exciting book - as after while we went swimming - or rather - diving, for the water was very cold & rough. In the afternoon Mother & I started to walk but got too warm & came home. Later, I went up to Betty's, but she wasn't feeling very well & I felt bored so I came home early & actually played my hands! After supper Dad took Mother & me to see Bebe Daniels in "The March Hare". Very amusing.

10th after

Sunday 31

I went to church & then hurried home to go in swimming with the Stewarts, Betty and Mr. Kit - one who is visiting the addises. Not quite as peppy as last week. In the afternoon went to the Ambassador for an Eve. Post & on the way home saw a man being carried from a bath house on a stretcher. Later I learned that he was dead! First dead man I've seen, I think. Went up to Betty's to say good-bye to her - she is going to Pittsburgh. Dad also left us, for Fairport. So Mother & I took a walk in the madding crowd.

AUGUST, 1921.

Bank Holiday.

Monday 1

got up early & went down town with Mother to buy some materials for a new dress.
Read magazine stories when we got back. In the afternoon I got to work on the dress.
It's a simple little white thing, but all my hands. At supper time
- I took Clement for a walk.
He fussed with his diaper in such a way as to cause Mother alarm for my innocence!! after supper she & I walked with Mrs. Reese for miles to the Yacht Club to a party. I don't think it is an "elite" place, but very amusing.

AUGUST, 1921.

Tuesday 2

It's a rainy day and in following the example of the weather! sore throat stiff neck & pains turning help to make me stay in bed all day long.
Mother was, & always sitting with me, playing games like "my secret went to Paris". Mr.
Stewart popped his head in the door &
wanted me to come to the Reese paid me a visit and Dad came home with a jar of ointment & ointment for me. After managing to swallow a little supper I tried to sit up in Mother's room for change of climate.
He used me a lot of it & it

AUGUST, 1921.

Wednesday 3

Felt much better this morning - proving my theory of no medicine. It is still raining however so I could not go out. I got to work on my dress again and spent most of the day so occupied. After dinner I wrote a short letter to Leslie Betts - I hope he won't answer it. Then I started a very thrilling detective story - "The Mardi-gras Mystery" by H. Bedford-Jones. Gosh! but I'd love to be able to write!

AUGUST, 1921.

Thursday 4

The sun at last! Mother & I set out for the boards as early as possible & then I came home & sewed. She is making a dress, too. In the afternoon I finished sewing - quite a successful Mrs. I sewed electric iron to press some things. Miss Davis must called today & I had to entertain her till Mother came. After dinner Mother, Dad & I took a walk & later I read. We are much disturbed about where to go next. As always I wrote a birthday letter to Edith.

AUGUST, 1921.

Friday 5

got dressed to go in evening with Mrs.
Stewart & then she changed her mind!
so I served. But not with much success. In the afternoon I served again but gradually lost interest & wasted time. In the evening went with Roland Addie & Whit Collins to Longport for Miss Maloney. Then we went in her car to the Ritz & dined in the grill. When I got home - late - Mr.
Stewart brought me a sandwich & I ate in their room in my robe de nuit!

AUGUST, 1921.

Saturday 6

Roland Addie & Whit Collins came up & we all went in bathing
with Mrs. Stewart, Mr. Polk & Dad. In
the afternoon the two boys and I, after much arguing, went to the Steel Pier where we kind of looked at a Bill Hart movie & then danced.
Batter, Whit & I danced.
We all had a gay time chatting & dancing. Whit was once engaged to Annie Krog, D.C.S. In the evening dined with the family & all on Miss Gurnett & then met the boys & went to the Chelsea grill & danced with both "Bud" & Whit. "Bud" says "I don't know - I don't"

AUGUST, 1921.

11th after
Trinity. Sunday 7

Lorna Mackay came here
+ the boys & we all went in swimming. Mr. Stewart
+ the boys made me do many dives. There was great excitement on the beach - taking movies. In the afternoon Roland + Whit came down + again it was "What shall we do?" So Mr. + Mrs. Stewart decided it by taking us all to see seeds sown in "The Roman god changed." Not as bad as it sounds. We walked home. After supper Mr. + Mrs. Stewart + we four "kids" sat + chatted until finally we walked to a sleeping place + I beat them! I was always with them.

AUGUST, 1921.

Monday 8

Every body is in a bad humor - self included.
We are not going to Belmont + nothing else right. Mother + I took a silent walk to Ventura.
In the afternoon Lorna Mackay came in her car
+ after a few words we went to see "Kagan" the story of the wolf - dog. It was very good. I like Lorna After supper Mother + I watched the sunset + came home just in time for me to be invited to go with the Stewarts + two
"Miss" boys to see "Godless Men" or rather deep movie.
Rollie who vice as Lorna + I like him again.

AUGUST, 1921.

Tuesday 9

I fooled around cleaning up every thing I could lay hands on.
If I die before I come back here every thing must be perfect. In the afternoon I wrote to Mike & Huffer, Bond, Betty Addis and Nan Beebe. Then I packed my suitcase.
In the evening Mrs.
Stewart & L. Addis & Rolie (Mike) and I walked out to the Venetian pier miles & miles. And then we walked home!!
Rolie came in afterwards & stayed quite late, taught me to roll cigarettes (?)
and was really perfectly dear.

AUGUST, 1921.

Wednesday 10

The whole family hustled while I took my time in getting ready for the train. Then Mother & I had a nice boat trip to O. L. L. We had lunch at Warram & then went to Kansas City.
The Appels & Kate met me.
The Appels are just the same but Kate seems a little queer. We fooled around here & then took a ride & a canoe. Jim was the good swimmer.
We went out to the Country Club for a good dinner with Dr. Appel. Best of the family is away. Bob Brown & John Mc. Gowan came & took me & me for a drive. Jim was with

AUGUST, 1921.

Thursday 11

We went down town in the ford, Susie driving - Well, Kate & I. I kept at Miss Susie's to see Gramma. In the afternoon we had our blood tested by Dr. Appel. It's normal.
Then we went up to Kate's until time to dress for Mary Hoppino's wedding. It was lovely - Mary was sweet & so were Jane & Mary.
Then we went out to Miller's field to the picnic - good food & lovely presents. I saw my dear Vicki out there! Had with her were with me.
Later we had great excitement following Jack & Mary Bannan to the train. Beau was here - our uncle. Finally got to the apartment & talked till late in bed.

AUGUST, 1921.

Friday 12

Got up early again and managed to go then all my exercises. We fooled around until we got the ford & went to Tony's. She is just the same - slapping very important. In the afternoon we got Kate & took a ride - & smoked quite a lot. Later we went out to the Hoppinos for the girls to see the presents. I saw my dear Vicki again. After dinner we took a ride again &
broke the ford and then played a wild game of bridge. Until teatime & talked again on my bed.

AUGUST, 1921.

Saturday 13

Almost decided to stay where I discovered the caves. But nevertheless I started out with Mother & the 'Eschelman' in their new Dodge. They took us to Passi - very nice of them. When Mother got to Phila. we checked around finding a tour closed & then left our luggage at the station.
Took the train to Atlantic City where Dad met us.
Everything just the same.
After dinner Rolie - Miss came to see me & later Eddie Shelling & Gordon Hargrave (Portland Me) came & we all went to the Star Pier to see the crowds. Fun!

AUGUST, 1921.

<sup>Trinity</sup>

went to church with Dad & Mother to get out of going down mine!
Then I walked on the beach with Mr. Stewart & Mr. Polk. Lolie Betts dropt in at lunchtime! Now I won't have to thank him for that supper. Thank goodness.
In the afternoon I talked to sick Mrs. Stewart & later to cousin Richie J. Hopkins and then went to Betty's with Mr. Stewart, who took us for a chair ride. But it rained & we sat in the chair house & chatted. After supper Rolie & his brother came & with Mr. & Mrs. S. we played 'Criminal vegetable' & 'Mumbler' till 12.

AUGUST, 1921.

Monday 15

When I finally got up
I went in to see poor Mrs. Stewart who is in bed again. She gave me "Mr. Wu" by Louise J.
Kuler to read. In the afternoon Betty called up & we went to the movies - saw a good Arnold Lloyd comedy & Wallace Vidor in "The Man & the Girl" - also very good. Then we went to her house & she told my fortune - I wished that Rolie will kiss me & she almost guessed it!!!
After supper Mrs. Beattie &
I walked to the library & had ice cream. Later I telephoned to the Stewarts & then read.

AUGUST, 1921.

Tuesday 16

I've got a cleaning fat today - went over to the dry-cleaners & bought silver polish & cleaned all the bureau silver - sound it too. In the afternoon I fixed my ironing basket & wasted time generally until Mother
& I took a long walk.
After supper I read "Mr.
Wu" until the stewards & the Addises & I went for a long, long walk. Coming home Betty & Rolie ran on ahead leaving Mr. & me behind - is Betty jealous?
She & Rolie came in afterward & she was very quiet.
They stayed late - Rolie wanted to

AUGUST, 1921.

Wednesday 17

Wrote a nice long letter to Phil - for us - soon at all, and was waiting it when I met Mr. St. who begged me to go in bathing with him - so I did! It was a fine swim, too even tho it did rain & the family got mad. In the afternoon I wrote a birthday letter to Fred and then played near all afternoon with Mr. St. We had lots of fun & passed the rainy day very quickly. Mr. St. is a dear. After dinner I settled down to finish "Mr. W." It is a very terrible story.

AUGUST, 1921.

Thursday 18.

I spent the morning drawing crazy pictures of clowns, girls & dancers. Just had a lovely time all by myself. In the afternoon I was very restless & tried to read but finally wandered up to Betty's where I talked to her and helped put pictures together. Then we planned a midnight swim & got Mr. St. & Phil to join us - but forgot our bathingsuits - so there was no swim. The St. family & Phil & I took a walk & had ice cream & then Phil & I sat on the porch & talked till 12! Betty got mad & went home early.

AUGUST, 1921.

Friday 19

Dandy old letter from Nell.
I get as few letters lately.
Mrs. St. Mr. Collo, Betty & I went in swimming.
the water was wonderful but very cold. I discovered that I could swim under water!
In the afternoon
went up to Betty's & we went to see the Harold Lloyd comedy
"Jed" - it was a swearn never caught
so much in my life.
Walked home. After dinner Betty came & we went off to take a long walk without Nolie or any one else. She is a queer child.

AUGUST, 1921.

Saturday 20

after much delay Mrs.
Stewart & I went in bathing - glorious!
In the afternoon
I took a little nap until Mother was ready to walk to the inf.
It was some walk three miles but we enjoyed every bit of it.
Came home in trolley car. after supper I played Solitaire and wrote to Peter & Olivia until Nolie called me up & then came & we took a nice long chair ride on the boardwalk. Once we met Betty, the Stewarts & Mr. Wilson but they did not interact our conversation.

AUGUST, 1921.

13th after
Trinity. Sunday 21

Waited for Laura for Mrs. & Mrs. H. to be ready to go in the ocean. Betty went with us. Roli went to play golf in stead - oh! It was lots of fun too. In the afternoon I started "The Sister-in-Law" by Gertrude Atherton. Later Mother & I went to church and after ward took a walk. In the evening Mr. Ritson came to see me. Roli & Leonard came with him but he asked me to take a walk & we did. We sat on a bench & talked of every thing from girls' crushes to conventions. Then we had ice cream. It was 31 & very nice this year.

Got up at six o'clock! to go swimming with Harold Ritson!! It was wonderful - the great sun on the smooth ocean and the deserted beach. It was cold tho & we didn't stay in long. I went back to bed again. Woke when I finally got up. In the afternoon Betty & I went to see Norma Talmadge & Eugene O'Brien in "The Storm". It is positively the best movie I'm going to see. I'm tired of them. After supper I waited for Roli & called her up & took a long walk with Mother. We passed Roli & Leonard on the boardwalk. Mother & I went to the end of the beach & "colored" home.

AUGUST, 1921.

Tuesday 23

Tolled around in bed and later read. This afternoon I went about as usual. In the afternoon I fixed a dress and then Mother & I went down town and shoppt. had a haircut and gained a pound and I went home again. After dinner Mother & I played golf solitaire & then I told him to send Betty down here but he sent Rolie instead. Very nice. At first I didn't feel like doing anything, we walked a little but came back, but later we rough-housed & had lots of fun.

AUGUST, 1921.

Wednesday 24

Waited & waited, mostly in bed until Mrs. Stinger was ready to wash her hair & then I did mine, too. We sat in the sun in the yard after wards. Mother cut about a foot of mine off!! It is getting long & thin. In the afternoon went with Mother to a funny little dress maker who took a lot of time & money - only hope of getting them dragged me on!! After supper Betty & Rolie appeared & took me to see Ethel Clayton in "Wealth". I suppose it was awfully good but I don't like pictures & Betty was sitting between me & Rolie.

AUGUST, 1921.

Thursday 25

Foiled around with Mrs. St. so that I wasn't ready when Nolis. Mike came to go in swimming. The ocean looked awfully rough so we spilled over to the bay but there were too many crabs there! On the way back I met Mr. Frankie a wonderful golfer. In the afternoon I wrote to Whit Collins. Then Mike and I took a long walk to the end of the boards - back! That's some test of friendship! After dinner I was trying to read when Mike came - we chattered until we made up our minds to go & get some ice cream.

AUGUST, 1921.

Friday 26

Mike came to go swimming and I was almost ready.
We took a ball with us & played catch on the beach. We took it in the water too & raced for it.
The water was terribly rough. In the afternoon Dad, Mother & I went to see the new Greenwich Village Collier - very specacular, but not exactly the thing to see with your family! Mother & I went home. After dinner I felt very restless & wanted to walk with Mr. Stewart but he went to the Adm. as usual & didn't tell Mike to come! So I said "See you later" & went to bed early.

AUGUST, 1921.

Saturday 27.

No one to go in bathing with me! Stayed in bed as long as I possibly could & when finally dressed played golf. In the afternoon Cousin Ben Polter who was here to lunch - & I walked on the beach - then met Mr. S. & Mr. Polk & went in the ocean. Great! After dinner Polie called me up but I had time to play nine holes of "golf" solitaire with Mr. Stewart before he came to take me to the Steel Pier. We talked - I told him about the letter I got from Julian Mulford this morning!! Polie is a dear.

AUGUST, 1921.

14th after Trinity.

Sunday 28

Went swimming with the Stewarts. Polie, of course is playing golf. I seem to either love or hate him. We had fun. Mr. S. & I, nevertheless. In the afternoon I went with the Stewarts to Longport to the Mackays. Roma was kind of cool - like Betty, I guess, & Polie of Poland. Mr. S. & I sat in the boat house & thought we were napping until Roma called us out in the open! After supper very nice. I greeted Polie - but I "had feeling" & wasn't surprised when he didn't come up to us. He came in & talked.

AUGUST, 1921.

Monday 29

Mike called up as I had to get up - Gee, I enjoyed hearing his voice & his going to Pliska - too-oo.
A little later Pliska called thru the 'catfishes' but it was Leo's, Betty the poor prairie! In the afternoon Betty & I went to see of course Swanson in "The Great Moment" - we saw absolutely pictures. Then we saw at 5:30 diamonds wearing rings! After supper I went up to Betty's & we read the happier. She took us for a job ride!! Later Miss Gloria told my fortune. Betty & Leonard went home. <sup>Madison</sup> <sup>and</sup> <sup>not</sup>

AUGUST, 1921.

Tuesday 30

Tried to rain to do a little packing my mind in a whirl. But soon I went in bathing with Mike - and Betty who was foolish & wouldn't stay with us. In the afternoon I soaked around until Betty was happy to take a walk but it was too hot & we just stayed in bed. Later I decided to go in bathing again - with her hus. It - lots of fun floating side by side etc. After dinner I walked to the area Malver's wife Martha & then Mike came & we tried to walk but settled down to do me, at least for cigarettes.
He also went to the sidewalk

AUGUST, 1921.

Wednesday 31

Went in for a last dip with Mr Stewart - it was wonderful - almost like Bermuda bathing.
He got off his back & all kinds of stunts. Then I packed & packed until after lunch Betty came & in all the heat we went to see Cousin Salvadge in "Seasons in Love". Very good. Then a storm came up & prevented me from going in bathing again with Vince who came above
early from Phila. for it!
After supper Mr. St. & I played "golf" in my room & then Phil came & we sat on the porch. I couldn't make him see me & again it! Eng. Cat.

"good-bye Mr. St." at 1 A.M. + he SEPT. 1, 1921. teased my hand

Thursday 1

Said good-bye to them and saw this. Took us to Dunbar? first night. Just before 10. Took us to the train was stuffing
- I sat & thought and went up with Phil.
In Phil's mother's sleep -
I was up & went.
On the way out to Gardens we saw John & wife. Put us in the car. (Saw Miss Hardy in Phila - N. S. Teacher.) Came to the Bush House where we'll stay. After supper went with Fred & his wife to bridge party at the Springs. V. & I went. Pats & I went to play "golf".
Wrote late & then home.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Friday 2<sup>o</sup>

Most awful night I ever spent - hot, noisy + too tired + blue to sleep. What's the use any way? I said. Sent a post card to Mr. Stas he asked. Then mother + I called on the Cousins stay on our way to Aunt Sam's. Phil has come home and is sick in bed. My little old heart is rejoicing
now. I stay at home + help him fix his sneakers!! Pleasant. I stay at home to dinner to my "home" - I get out of it except for Phil - an old time. I'll be there. Love

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Saturday 3

Unpacked my trunk and
went up to the house.
Mary + I sat + talked - it is convenient to have a married friend! Stayed to lunch + afterward washed my hair. Dried it in Phil's room while he shaved.
Then we took a drive with Aunt L. + Mother. Got a check of a letter from Mike - just lovely. Went to the house for dinner with the family and afterward, refusing to go to the movies with Paul Morris sat with Phil + listened his warnings against Paul who drinks. We talked of many things + agreed.
I also called when I came home. I talked to Paul on porch.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

15th after
Trinity. Sunday 4

Beau came on the early train. Went to church with Uncle Fred & Cousin Harry May. The whole Quigley family came in to Aunt Louise's after wars.

Hugh is good-looking. My family stayed there to a delicious dinner. Talbot after ward. And later went to Boalsburg to festivities at a military camp there. I sat beside General Price at mess. Mr. Owen Johnson & his fourth wife - very attractive were there. When it was dark we saw the short machine guns up against the black mountains. Marvellous sight. Phil went with us & was drinking.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Monday 5

It is raining - on Labor Day! Went out to the house & sat in Phil's room playing with the snakes. Peter, Jack & a whole bunch came in to see him. In the afternoon - I stayed there to luncheon - another wedding present came but after that excitement we couldn't think what to do. So, later Beau beat Fred at tennis & Mary & Phil & I had tea - which I served under Uncle's supervision! Went to Aunt's for dinner too. Beau & I & Talbot till time for Beau's train. Nice to have seen him. Rode around a little & then played ~~new~~ with the ~~snakes~~.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Tuesday 6

Still feeling like the devil.
Went up to Aunt Lo & after talking to her for a while,
went down town with Helen & Mary. Helen as usual was tactics & made me wear & stayed there to lunch - is it not awful? In the afternoon Phil and I took a peach of a ride taking Dizzy the coon with us. I scratched him (the coon) to sleep on my lap.
Then I pressed my dress in Bud's room, to sleep to the dance at Lock Haven among given by Kate Goss.
Fred & Mary & Pete & I went together. Dinner dance & great fun. Don Griffin was as usual. I sat out some.

wrote to Mike in a spare minute.
SEPTEMBER, 1921. Hope he likes it.

Wednesday 7

Got up feeling spy after the wild ride home in the back seat with Pete. Phil came in before I was fully dressed & after a few brands we went to Cousin Mavis where we met Martha Somerville a rather plain girl who is engaged! We stayed there to lunch and afterwards got all set for a wonderful ride thru the mountains.
We discussed sex thoroughly.
Then I pressed another dress & after dinner at the Bush House - actually - went with Pete, Martha, Fred & Mary to Lock Haven Club to Don Hopkins' dance. It was fine.
Danced with every one. I wanted to home at 11 o'clock.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Thursday 8

got awake early, rather tired & stiff but when Phil came to take a walk I said not a word but went with him. They fed Mary & I went to the laundry's to lunch & after trying to talk to Henrietta in vain I went with Phil to have Digg's picture taken and then I drove the car & we went to State to watch football scrimmage. Phil & I are getting very intimate. Once he kissed me rather unconsciously. Had supper with Dad & me. Aunt Maude arrived at the house. Scottie called again.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Friday 9

Mary walked in before I was dressed and hurried me to take a walk with her & with Phil. We walked & walked & walked. Got back dead & I dropped into the Beach house for my meal. In the afternoon wrote to Mrs. Stewart & then saw Phil's snake bill & cut a rat. Wonderful sight. We fooled around, getting mad at Fred & taking Mabel for a ride. Then Fred Mary Phil Scottie & I went to Cousin Marie's & dinner with Martha. Very good meal & company. Afterward Phil & I took a ride & he kissed me. Now, now! Miss Van Gundy (G.L.S.) is here lecturing to the women.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Saturday 10

Helped mother wash her hair & did sundry things, including talking to Peter at the Warehouse & calling on Margaret Miller, not at home. When Helen came we talked till Phil came and took us to Aunt's.
I stayed to luncheon &
afterward Jack, Mary & I Phil & I went over to State to the football practice & got caught in a storm. So Aunt's for dinner. Afterward we all went up to the Puffer's & I teased Phil by flirting outrageously with Peter! Then Phil & I took a ride & had it out & he kissed me and kissed me!

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

16th after
Trinity Sunday 11

Hustled off to Sunday School and taught Aunt Fannie's class - the big boys - on Mrs.
Maynard's regent. Went to church with Phil. Stayed at the house for dinner.
Afterward we decided to have supper in the woods and bustled around getting ready.
Then Phil, Mary, Martha, Phil & I went down to the club and Ted made me read my not asking poor Peter. Right Phil & I took a wonderful walk up a gap. I had never seen anything like it before - just nature. We talked - see Mans. There we met the other three & had supper. Home early & up to the Puffer's. Still later Phil kissed me - Aunt's & Aunt's Phil & Mary

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Monday 12

Phil came in to visit me before I was up. Wrote a note to Jean - about Phil. + to Harold Mitson. After lunch with Mother Phil came for me to watch his snake eat a dear little guinea pig. It could not swallow it. Then we came to my room and had really quite a time on my bed. Finally we snuggled out of it and went to my house + I tried to do a sketch of him. After dinner he took Mother + me up there + after much maneuvering got permission to take a ride. We stopped + repeated the experience of this afternoon, only worse. Now at last - I hate him.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Tuesday 13

Awful night in which I decided that Phil is nasty but I am nasty and I longed for things. Later when Phil came to take me on brands I could not hide my feelings. We took Aunt Maud + Mary around too. In the afternoon Phil took Mary + me out on the road + we smoked and roughhoused - how can Phil love me + treat me so. I got another letter from Mike - praises me! Later we gave music to a snake - large audience and then trusted the two doves + Pete off to a picnic in Fishing Creek. Jane, Bud Ellis, Mabel + Lora were already there. Sang around fire moonlight marvelous night. So many more.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Wednesday 14

Phil took me and Mary
+ Ellis out to State College to see some deer little bear cubs. Went to lunch at the luncheon. In the afternoon with a large audience we fed another mouse to another mouse.
Then Phil + I went in the woods behind the club + practiced shooting on his big army rifle. It was great fun, but some job.
Phil. him was me but that was all. hurried home to dinner + soon after he left on the train.
I am not sorry. Peter came later we sat on the Bush house balcony. Peter is a comfort.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Thursday 15

Kind of queer not to have Phil waiting for me. Did several duties + then walked out to meet Mary. she + I went down town. On the way back we stopped at Jack Montgomery's + talked to him. I'd like to "get" him.
Stayed with Mary to lunch in the afternoon she + I went up to Peter's and there was Jack, too, so we started a campaign against him, poor deer. Later we had to come home + help get ready for the great dinner party for Uncle's 60th birthday. Great family there - champagne + favors! Lots of men called afterward. Great success.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Friday 16

was supposed to meet Mary who kept me lingering around the streets - we finally bought some music.
Went out there to church & afterwards Mary and I went up to see poor mother & father who is in bed. Then we took a lovely drive with Walter & Aunt Maud. I sat with Maudie. Got a letter from Phil just before I left!
Later I got dressed & went with Peter, Mary & Fred to Ruth Griffin's dance at Loch Ness Country Club. would not have enjoyed it except for Peter. On the way home we saw Freddie Duggan mark up - simply cut out.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Saturday 17

Most terrific rain storm Stayed in bed late & then joked around, watching clocks & fixing up my books. In the afternoon Fred & Mary came for me after I had written to Mau & to Miss of Drury's about Bermuda. We sat around and rode around until it was time for me to come home & dress to go to Jain's after dinner to a bridge party. She came for me in her Ford. Mr.
Jennings of Harriburg is visiting her. Ellis Kelly & I beat those two. Hugh & Scottie dropped in this evening.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

17th after Trinity.

Sunday 18,

Taught Aunt's class at Sunday School again & went to church with my family. Went to Aunt's to dinner. After ward there was a very impressive military funeral across the street.
The little Carters came to see us. Later Fred Mary & I took a drive
- rather silent, I felt like a "third person". Then we went up to the Jingley's to supper. Mr.
Maynard was there too. His dear. Later Mrs.
Mrs. Wyman (C. Jingley)
& the Sheffers & Scotts dropt in. Mabel took us for a ride in her Ford.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Monday 19

A waked slowly & thoughtfully - pondering over life.
Went up to Aunt's to Lunch. In the afternoon
Fred dropt us down town and we did a little shopping - cigarettes mostly.
Then she made me go with her to some sort of a children's Bible class.
After that, of course, Fred took us for a little ride, taking Mabel & her sister Bobby with us. I came home to dinner. Fred hardly looks at me any more. Peter came afterward and we had in Mrs. Dagg's living room & talked & laughed heartily.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Tuesday, 20

Tuesday 20
Met Mary at the hairdresser, did a few errands and called on Pete at the warehouse. Met Jack who took us out to the lagoon.
After luncheon I talked to Bert Mand - she is very attractive - then Phil & Mary & I smoked. Later Pat Love & Mabel came in & we played bridge & toasted marshmallows in front of the fire - it is cold, today.
Went to the Bush Hotel for dinner - do they want me at the house?? - Pat in the lobby of the hotel talking to Bert & Jack - I'm having a "social wrestle" Pete & I today driving till they get tired & then went to Shaffer's - Hugh & Scott there.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Wednesday 21

Wednesday 21
Raining pitch for tea. Use an uncommon expression! Went up to the house just before lunch - talked to Aunt M.
In the afternoon I sat with poor Mary who is sick & in bed. Wrote to Mrs.
Buck, skin's friend, about Bermuda again. Got nice letter from Harold Pitou.
Later Mary & I had tea in her room & Fred came in.
Left them together for a while and finished "Sisters in law" at last! Stayed there to dinner which was very nice as everything was in a good humor. Afterward Fred drove Mabel, Henri & me down to see Norma Falkenridge in "passion flower" no good.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Thursday 22

Got letters from Mr. & Mrs. Stewart! No mention of Mike. Went up to Aunt L's after getting Pete to buy me some cigarettes for Mary, much to the amusement of the other boys in the warehouse. Fred & Mary went to the Dingleys to lunch & I stayed with Aunt L. soon Mary came home & went to bed & I manicured her finger nails until picnic came. To go for a walk - we did & wandered thru lovely woods & almost got lost. She & I had dinner with Fred & then Peter came & we played bridge. Fred took us home, stopping at the Shufflers on the way.

SEPTEMBER, 1920.

Friday 23

Went up to sit with Mary and talk of many things with her. Later I thought I'd get up a picnic & completed plans for that. Stayed to lunch with only Fred & Uncle Fred! In the afternoon I nursed Mary faithfully & finished a pillowcase for Aunt L. Went up to the Shufflers to see Mabel for a minute & to get a breath of this glorious day. Came back & got tea for Fred, Mary & me. Came to Bush House to dinner. Hattie left & I went to train to see her off then Fred & I went to Shufflers & played bridge with Mabel & J. + M.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Saturday 24

very busy getting this damn picnic on its feet. Went up to the house to lunch and afterwards rushed around getting dressed & ready to go in Jamie's ford to the state football game with Peter,
Jamie & his friend Jack.
Was supposed to go & resigned. It was State College vs. Lebanon Valley & not as good. They we came home & got Byrd & met Mabel & Jack & had a great old picnic up Trout stream, cooked hang around fire & then went to club where Jack danced.
Later at Birch House and kissed me.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

18th after
Trinity. Sunday 25

Up in a hurry to go to Sunday School. Caught the same big rays. Went to church with Aunt L.
Very good up-to-date sermon by Mr. Maynard. Went to Aunt L's to dinner - very good, duck, ate too much.
May is up at last but it is a horrid rainy day.
The three Shufflers & Hugh called in the afternoon & felt silly & acted so.
Later Pete & I took a ride in his ford - I ran it - wonderful sunset. I went to the Shufflers' to very good apples & rough house afterward. Hugh & Scott there. Pete & I used on side porch when everyone left.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Monday 26

Slept until they wakened me to give me another bureau & wardrobe so I had a nice little job changing all my clothes.
Then I went up to Aunt L's. Every one was away except Mary & Fred - good chicken lunch. In the afternoon Mary & I each wrote a birthday letter to Pierre & then took a walk & settled down in the woods for a s-m-o-k-e (our war cry) Later we went to Fred's office & he took us for a beautiful ride. Mother had dinner at Aunt L's.
Dad is away. Pete called later repaired bridge.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Tuesday 27

His only dress when I finally got up - what's the use of hurrying?
Went up to the house
& served. In the afternoon I wrote a nice letter to Rolie-Mike. Then Mary
& I went to S. Jeffers.
I waited there with old Bobbie until Mabel & Mrs.
L. came home & played bridge with us. On the way home I stopped at Cousin Mary's & Lucie-dently Aunt L. asked me to come to his car, which I wanted to do - Miss Brown Dad & Uncle Fred came to the called on James in vain. So I sat with the ladies who kept talking about bad girls while I came!

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Wednesday 28

Got up early & went out to help Aunt L. with the housework - maid gone. Then Mary peevish me & I tried to find someone to go down town with me - found Mother & Aunt Maud.
In the afternoon I went driving with the Ladies, sat in front with Elwood. Got a screaming letter from Beau about my going to the game with Phil.
Then I got ready to go to a picnic with Mabel, Jennie, Leathe, Mary & Fred & Peter. We went to Spring Creek - it was lovely. Cooked steak. Peter fixed me quite a lot. coming home in Fred's car.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Thursday 29

Went to the parish house to help Mary tie up packages for Mr. Maynard.
Then I went up to the Sheffers' to lunch. Mr.
& Mrs. S. were not there.
Soon after ward Elwood took Mary, Mabel, Peter & me down to the club.
Jack was there & his car, so I took Peter for a ride in it - we had a terrible time finding the way home.
Then we sat on the porch while others golfed and he continued to kiss me as he had all day. Went to Aunt L. for Michaelmas goose. Got letter from Phil.
Went up to play bridge with Mabel. Mrs. Maynard.

SEPTEMBER, 1921.

Friday 30

Mary came in before I was dressed - & finally we went to the Van house to work on the packages for Mr. Maynard.
Awful storm blew up while we were there. In the afternoon we went back & finished the job. Then went down town - I got back in time to take a nice drive with the Aunt & Cousin.
Aunt Maud has gone - too bad. Went back there to dinner and afterward Peter came & we four went to the Bush Arcade to dance rather rough but good music. Went to supper & made coffee & toast at 2 o'clock.

OCTOBER, 1921.

Saturday 1

Thought I was sleeping late but found it to be earlier than usual when got up. Mary met me & we met Ted. In the afternoon Ted & Mary took me & John Love & Hugh Lynch over to State to the football game against Gettysburg. It was very good. Hugh & John & I had lots of fun in the back seat.
When we got home we dropt John & got Peter & went down the road to the "Lion's Tea Room" where we had a wonderful chicken waffle dinner. Hugh & I had a real fist fight for fun then & one later at the supper. I was it out very much.

OCTOBER, 1921.

19th after
Trinity Sunday 2

Did not go to church Sunday I don't but got to church just a little late. It was Communion service. I said a sermon by Mr.
Maynard on "Michael & all Saints, I mean, all Angels." Whole family went to Aunt Lo's to dinner. In the afternoon I called on the Cousins May & then went with Fred & Mary to call on May Beezer & then to the Country Club where we met the Sheffers, Hugh, etc.
Hugh would not let me drive his Ford which worries me. And after supper I went to the Sheffers & Hugh said naughty things & we had another fight. Then I got kind of mad at Peter.

OCTOBER, 1921.

Monday 3

Foiled around in my room till the last minute & then rushed up to Aunt Lo's to lunch. Got a "dippy" letter from Mike full of the darlinest little pictures he drew. Hope I see him again. Mary & I went up to get Mabel to come & see but she has a bad cold. So we didn't see ourselves but had a tea party for the Cousins May.
Wrote a short letter to Phil & hurried home to dress, & back to Aunt Lo's to dinner. Then Mary & I went to Kat Love's to a very nice card party - all girls. And I won a prize!

OCTOBER, 1921.

Tuesday 4

went shopping with mother & then met
Mary & went around with her. We walked out to meet Freddie, too.
Went to Aunt L's to lunch.
In the afternoon Mary & I took a walk out in half moon hill after getting Peter to buy us some cigarettes which we used on the walk. Then I came home & made tea for the "old ladies". It is a cold day. Ate dinner at Bryce House with Dad.
Went out afterward to play bridge with Peter against F. M. Pete brought me home & kissed me in empty parlour.

OCTOBER, 1921.

Wednesday 5

went out to Parish House to help Mary & Big Mollie make sandwiches for church supper. Went to Aunt L's to lunch & returned to sandwiches at the ward.
Then Mr. Maynard asked me to register the names of the delegates to the Church School Service League which had its meeting here of the whole diocese. I escaped however, & walked to Millsburg with Sarah Ray & Bobby Sheffer. Home in time to help Aunt L. serve supper to some of the delegates - & then sang in the choir & afterward played my part at reception at Parish House.

can't have been so restless because I had no cigarette OCTOBER, 1921. all day.

Thursday 6

I'm not going to that Parish House affair again.
I went driving with Carmen, Mary & Mother & then had lunch here with Dad. In the afternoon I went around to pass slowly - I wrote two kind of business letters & then wandered over to talk to Peter. I felt as if I was to go to him to talk a little with me. Even then I had to wait till dinner here at the Bush & later waited for Peter - we got Fred.
I went to the office where we met rich & attractive people.

OCTOBER, 1921.

Friday 7

Went out to the house & talked to Mary about the affairs of the world - especially my mother's feeling the fact that I feel that Phil no longer wants me to go to the game. In the afternoon she had a meeting so I tried in vain to take Diggy, Pinkie, and walking & then got Mabel & had a very nice long walk with Peter who treated us to milkshakes.
Dined at Bush and later Peter, Carmen & I played solitaire till Ted & Mary came & we all went to the Brooks' off house dance. Very good. Had at Aunt later took Mrs. Childs with us.

Cut my finger-nail off!

OCTOBER, 1921.

Saturday 8

Mabel + Bobby came in before I was awake! Later Mary came + read to me while I dressed. Then we went shopping. After lunch we got ready to go to State to see them. Play North Carolina + first before we went I got a letter from Phil saying he'd asked Annie Ben to go to game as I don't seem interested!! I nearly died, but mother cheered me up + I went to this other football game with Hugh + Fred + Mary + Hugh is a darling. Game fine air nice + cold. Afterward we went to sleep. Calm at Fishing Creek + cooked a wonderful supper. On way to Hugh held me close + kissed me.

Mary also covered fingernails + legs in church! No one else!

OCTOBER, 1921.

Got awake at 4:30 + stayed awake with thoughts of Phil + Hugh. Got up after while + wrote Phil exactly what I thought. Then I went to church + sang in the choir. Walked to P.O. with Hugh. Had dinner at Aunt's. Got all dressed in old clothes + came + Mary + Fred + Hugh + I walked to Point McCoy. It's a long walk but Hugh was pleasant company - he kissed me on the top + asked me to go to the game with him - not Phil! We four went to Hugh's to supper - little Evan + Blanche there - and coffee, came by afterward. I slept + job till late when Hugh took Lottie + me for a ride in Fordie.

OCTOBER, 1921.

Monday 10

Hugh has gone back to work - too - too - long! I did a little shopping & then went up to cousin Mary's. Did all alone. I cut out & sewed up doll dresses for her. Just before I had a very bad cough. So said something to her about Phil - yesterday - which Aunt A. heard & was upset - such times as I'm having! I washed my hair at Emma's & talked to her till Fuddie came. F. is a good humor - rejoice! Rushed home to dinner, and I went up to Peter's later. He was, too. Played bridge & took for ride with Peter & Mabel.

OCTOBER, 1921.

Tuesday 11

Went up to Aunt L's rather early & worked hard on some bloomers. In the afternoon James, Mabel, Mary & I took a nice long walk but got caught in the rain just as we neared Fred's watch factory. So he took us home & we all went in James' house & had tea & played the game. Fred & I had planned to go to C. Club as Mary had a meeting. My whole family went to Aunt L's for dinner & afterward Peter took me for a ride & then we played bridge with F. & M. When Peter kissed me good-bye I was really sorry to see him go.

OCTOBER, 1921.

Wednesday 12

got up early & packed my trunk, then I attended to a lot of little errands & drove out the street with Love Lane. At Mary's I wrote to Beau and to Mike Addis. In the afternoon Mary & I sat down stairs & unpacked & served until Mother came with a lovely letter from Hugh and a very queer one from Phil saying I should go to the game with him after all. I wrote immediately & said I was going with H. Aunt L. is on my side in the matter at last. Later I went into Phil's room & prayed after dinner. 7:30 - I called on Mrs. Hingley, the Lanes, Hays & the Hays.

OCTOBER, 1921.

Thursday 13

tried to eat some breakfast. Said good-bye to hotel people & went over to wave house to see Peter. Then Mary & I & truck and came to welcome us on our trip - Aunt L., Dad & Mother in the Cadillac with Elwood. It was a wonderful clear cold day, the rugs were like Persian carpets in colors. Had good picnic lunch & arrived in Sausalito at 4:30. Got another apologetic letter from Phil! It is so funny to be staying at the Lanes house. Dear old Kate called & I went to see, Charley. All came but!

OCTOBER, 1921.

Friday 14
got up feeling blue - low mood. I drove back in Bpto! Kate didn't come as she said she would as I went around with Mother & Aunt L. seeing all their friends. Many of Dano's men look very well. In the afternoon, Dad & Ma & Aunt L. & I went to see the "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" in movies. It was wonderful and I cried through. Oh, Lord, I wanted to die, too. Then the four went to the Hartman's to dinner. Bob was there & showed me his book of his trip around the world.

OCTOBER, 1921.

Saturday 15
Wrote a nice letter to Hugh and then went with Mother & Aunt L. for a wonderful drive. Sat in front with Woodie & chatted aimably. Wonderful day - clear & not cold.
Went to Middletown, Reading, where we had lunch, then to Lebanon, Reading and home. Gee gee, it was great - the only thing to console me for not being at the game at State with Hugh & F. M. Started at ten & got home at six.
Mrs. Gloringer - & John at the - called after supper.

OCTOBER, 1921.

21st after Trinity.

Sunday 16

Went to church with Aunt L. - dear little Aunt L. has done her. Had to say howdy to so many people afterward - phew! Walked out the street with Lorne & Charly - met Ben Fingers, Bob Brown & Bill Hinton.
In the afternoon I went with the family out to the Happers & took Margie & Jane & a few kids for a little ride over dusty roads much to Waddie's disgust.
Then we took Grandma for a longer ride, then highly. Saw two Schersingers at home when I went to meet dear Mamma. R. who is here & spend the night. Her aunt got here called later.

OCTOBER, 1921.

Monday 17

Mam & I slept together - gee, it was great to have her near me again - she certainly is companionable.
Aunt L. & Mam left early for Phila - was too. We moved to rooms across the hall. Dad & I had lunches alone and then I took a bagful of letters etc to the attic in the office & stored them away. Met Kate & Charly rolls came here with me while I smoked a little & talked of the world to them. Had nothing at all to do after supper! but he around talking to Dad & Ma & writing to Ben & Lorne.

OCTOBER, 1921.

Tuesday 18

Went to the dressmaker's + down town with Mother. Then we met Grandma + had lunch with her at the Y. W. C.
A. Afterward I went up to Kate's + stayed while she fished around breakfast. Then we did some errands
+ went out to see Majorie Johnson. On the way home we called on Emily B. Black + learned she is going to have a baby soon. After supper I met Grandma who took me to the Colonial very good show. Then what perhaps, cousin treated us to

OCTOBER, 1921.

Wednesday 19

My mother + I went to my hat store in town + in the Capt. found just what I wanted. Aunt May went with us + to the Y. W. C. A. for lunch. Then I went up to Kate's + we did errands until time to take her ma + Grandma
for a very nice drive.
Just before dinner Aunt Katie + Mary arrived from Philadelphia. Mary says I cannot go with them tomorrow + my heart is just broken. Got letter from Pete - he + Hugh had petting party in Rock Haven - Hugh! M. + I had a cigarette retired early + talked much.

OCTOBER, 1921.

Thursday 20

Mary + I went to a few stores on our auto before she + Aunt Louise + Miss Lively motored off to Bfth - god - I wanted to go! I went up to Kate's + talked to keep from thinking. I got another nice letter from Miss Miss morning. Had lunch at cafeteria with mother. Kate + I went down town + then stopped and for me to smoke a cig. Later we took her mother + Tony + Charly for a ride. After dinner Kate + I raced around the street before going to Charly's to play bridge with George.

OCTOBER, 1921.

Friday 21

Went to a few shops + dropped in to see Tony + Jane at the bank. Charlotte + George came in + I walked home with them. In the afternoon after lunch at the Y I went up to Kate's + then up to Charly's. She letter + I took a lovely walk in the country. I had a little smoke. Came home + had a shower + a sundae. In the evening George Roth took me to a splendid party at Bill Reichitsch's. We drove around a little first. I met all the new boys + much to my surprise, enjoyed it very much.

OCTOBER, 1921.

Saturday 22

Spent with Mr. Lutz, Kate, Marjorie Johnson & Charlotte to Swarthmore to see the game of that college with F. & M. college. We had our lunch along a pretty road. The day was wonderful for the trip. The game was very good - one of the boys I met last night got hurt badly. There was a splendid showing from Lancaster. Some came home with us. We had dinner at Media. Sat with Mr. L. coming home. Lights blew out. Some trouble. Got home very late.

OCTOBER, 1921.

22nd after Trinity

Sunday 23

Went to church & waited for Charley afterwards. Then we met Walter Mc Gowan & Bob Brown & drove out to gates with them. Later Bob & I walked out to Tony's. In the afternoon I wrote to Mrs. Stewart & Mai & went out to Tony's. The "run in" was late & I hated it. So after I would find myself dreading and I felt blue & have decided that I am not a popular girl after all - any where. There have always been "times". I was "If Winter Comes" by A. S. M. Hutchinson. John Little asked me to go to a flat. Dance & I said no & then called him & said yes.

OCTOBER, 1921.

Monday 24

Went shopping with Mother, but grandma went to cafeteria. Then I went up to Kate to take a walk with her and she had changed her mind so I met George Appel who asked me to go to the movies, so we met Charley & Stranbile and saw The Lean in "Passing time" quite good & Charlie Chaplin in "Idle Class" - not so good.
Then the girls called to Emily Chisard. After supper I wrote to Aunt R. & had until Tony came to take me to his house. Where had a very, very good time - made wedding & birthday

OCTOBER, 1921.

Tuesday 25

Poked in dressing as usual and again went shopping with Mother.
After lunch I went up to see Kate - who's in a bad mood. We got Charley & did a few errands & then Kate jumped us - so we took a walk & had some cigarettes, before I had to go to the hair dresser for a treatment. Then the girls up at the Y. W. pool after wards but was too late to go in myself. After dinner I had to wait time to go to see Miss Singley at grandma's. Had nice visit but she had not seen me in Feb. <sup>at the</sup> <sup>at the</sup> <sup>at the</sup>

OCTOBER, 1921.

Wednesday 26

Letter from Phil. apologizes & says he's lost his job!!! Went shopping again. In the afternoon I took my blowing up to Ralston & got with Mr. & Mrs. Mother till we could stand it no longer & got the car & Tony & watched the football practice & I had a couple of cigarettes.
After supper George Appel took a bunch of us out to Mary Maxwell's to a party - quite nice, altho I got no further than about these college boys.
Monday night was cloudy & gloomy. Doug Francis, very tall & about nicest but very young.

OCTOBER, 1921.

Thursday 27

Mother & I went out to the dress makers & had to wait a long time - while Mrs. Dr. Appel was fitted!!
Then we went out to the Happers to a very nice luncheon. Jane & Margie & Mary were there.
Later Margie and I took a walk, & talked about tall men. Uncle Fred was here & saw Dad but said nothing about Phil's job, so after finishing my very good book (see Sunday) I wrote to Phil and then to Mary. Feeling "good" tonight so wrote long silly letters - then made up beautiful tales about Hugh.

OCTOBER, 1921.

Friday 28

Dad went to Phila. and Mother & I went shopping at home. In the afternoon I went to the hairdressers again and then I went up to Kate's. We got Charlie & all three took Mrs. Lutz on errands.
We sat for hours outside the Imperial - a thing which I hate - & talked to all the boys who came & went.
Then we got Marie and out out for a road & talk & smoked - to my delight.
After supper I walked all by myself to Mrs.
Dr. Appels to have a chat with her but she wasn't at home. So I was "Becky" <sup>Superintendent</sup> <sup>House</sup>

OCTOBER, 1921.

Saturday 29

Mother & I met Mrs.
Gloveringer & did some shopping - we seem to shop all the time but never accomplish anything.
In the afternoon I went with Kate & Tony to see F. & M. play football against T. M. C. - & beat them. Very good game & we had lots of fun. All of a sudden I decided to go to the dance tonight & take Lou May who played such good football! So I did - Kate & her boy rode in the car and it was a very nice dance and I didn't feel a bit "snobbish".
Things just didn't bother me.

OCTOBER, 1921.

23rd after Trinity.

Sunday 30

Went to church with the family & walked up to Charlotte & Kate's after words. In the afternoon I tried to write - couldn't - & tried to read - couldn't. Finally I met Charly & walked out to Tony's. There was an awful bunch out there - nearly all boys. Bluecher Martin & Jerry Mast, Armstrong & two boys, were to go. I said I will go. I didn't have any supper but stayed there & went to get corn fodder for Halloween with a "gang". Sat in a car with Chomley & Walter - played with him & made

OCTOBER, 1921.

Monday 31

No mail - & was expecting a letter from Hugh. Did a few errands & then met Margie Hopkins at the telephone office & she told me the whole thing - it was intensely interesting - a wide awake job. Then I had lunch with grandma and a shampoo and went to call on Mrs. Joe. Brexelman - nice! Met Kate on her way to school so I went to call on Emily Lincoln, another nice visit. After dinner John Allen came to take me to the Phi Kappa Psi dance. I had a better time than I expected but -! But, but, Nora went out to the dressmaker a good and back with the same way. Then I went up to Mrs. Brenne-man's to lunch on Mrs. B.

+ Joe were there and it was very nice. Afterward Mrs. B. + I went to the "studio" and painted little iron elephants. Later Mrs. + Mrs. G. Loring came to see Mrs. B. + came up in the "studio", too.
We had a tea party, too.
When I came home I started to cut out doll dresses. After dinner Charlotte + Jerry + Blanche Martin came to go to the movies but we stayed here + had some good bridge.

NOVEMBER, 1921.

Wednesday 2

Did some shopping in a hurry and then cut out some shirtwaists.
In the afternoon I went up to Mrs.
Brenneman's again +
she + I worked hard all afternoon on the little elephant. It is very nice work and I got thirty-five cents an hour for doing it.
Also, I like Mrs. B. very much. After supper
I felt very diligent + did a lot of mending
+ worked on the little doll for the church fair. Quite late Lou May called me up + asked me to go to the

Thursday 3

Bad night, so I had all kinds of disgusting dreams about being ~~in~~ <sup>in</sup> May! I dressed early & went up to Mrs. Glooringer's to sew on her machine. It is electric. After lunch - a big one at the Y.W. - I had a hair treatment and then went back to finish sewing. The girls called me up to play bridge but I wasn't <sup>in</sup> finish until quite late after lots of trouble. After dinner I sewed and got things ready for my trip & then wrote a long letter to Mike.

NOVEMBER, 1921.

Friday 4

Got everything ready for my trip. Then went up to Kate's - first, tho, I had a telegram from Betty Addis saying she was passing thru & - but I wasn't here. Kate & I had lunch at Y & then she came down & waited to meet Fred & Mary & Hugh & Scatter when they came. They all had lunch here & then we started to Phila. Hugh is darling & kissed me slightly when we pretended to fight. Soon after we got to the Bellevue Mike Addis called me up, bless his heart. Jack Norrington was here & went to "The Boat" with us after a delicious dinner. Jack is a scream. <sup>then so happy</sup> got up & exercised as usual & then had horrible cramp.

Mother gave me whiskey.
Aunt May drop in to see us. got up in time for lunch. It is raining & dreary out. got to work on my little doll dress & thought over again all the past glorious week-end. Letters from Beau & Jean. Took a nap and dreamed prosionately of Hugh. Why didn't I rush into his arms yesterday when he held them out & wanted me to??
Another cramp - some in this time. Sewed all evening & straightened things.

Thursday 10

Rushed around the shops with Mother before Miss Daisy Grubb came to take us to her beautiful home at Port Hope.
Miss Wickersham, Grange and my dear Miss Lily Beall went too. We had a very awful bunch - then went all over the place - it was built in 1800 - later we had tea & then a lovely drive home.
Jim still rather lame sits for "big Bertha".
After supper I sat alone & wrote to Peter. Later Uncle Ed
Eberman came to this hotel.

Armistice Day.

NOVEMBER, 1921.

Letter from Hugh.

Friday 11

I passed leisurely & went up to Rats' - meeting Fritz Johnson & his car on the way. There I smoked & we listened to the bells while they buried the "Unknown Soldier" in D.C. Rats & I went to the S.W. to lunch then I had a hair treatment, met her again & we watched the parade. Then we went to Emily Clark's and she helped me make some brassieres & told me a lot about babies. Maie Johnson came in later. Grandma & Uncle Ed had dinner with us. Wrote to Mary & Nan.

NOVEMBER, 1921.

Called on sick Mrs. Eyster after lunch.

Saturday 12

Waked out to Mrs. Eyster's with another to be fitted again. Then lunched at R.W. Afterward I went up to Rats' & made arrangements about going to game - namely - I met Tom down town & went out to ball field & met Fritz & Lou Amelia there & watched F. & M. run the circus in the mud. It was drizzling & horribly cold. Dick Snyder sat with us, too. The Hartmans came to have dinner with us & later I went with Louis May to the inter-frat. dance at the Burnswicks. It was a very good dance & Lou was darling.

Monday 14

Raced over town on a few errands before meeting mother out at Mrs. Eyster's. We walked home & had lunch at V. W.
I got a letter from Miles saying he had seen me that Sat. night in Phila. on the Walton roof when I didn't reply to him!! <sup>stumped</sup>
Then I went up to Charly's & talked confidentially - she got Kate & went down to Emily's - played bridge etc casual & I smoked. Emily told no more about the baby after supper & arrived until Jan May came & took me to see Lila Lee in "After the Shaw" - we sat with Dabby there & afterwards sat alone in a tavern. <sup>was</sup> I wouldn't let him <sup>see</sup> me!

NOVEMBER, 1921.

Tuesday 15

got up early to have a hair treatment went up to see Kate who brought me some in time to go to the Poplains with mother for luncheon. Very nice time. Came home with Maggie & met Kate & Emily & went for a little ride. Then I saw Dad who says Miss Wray has invited me to come to N. Y. - such excitement! I wonder how Paul would like his desire of mine! Got letters from him & Phil & Helene Beebe. After supper went up to Neddy's with Bleacher, Martin & Jerry. Went to play bridge & had a delightful evening. Tired!

NOVEMBER, 1921.

Wednesday 16

got up early again to pack and then I went shopping and to the office garden with mother - such a hustle. Then Kate at the N. Y. and had her come to eat with me - I shall have to say good bye. She was so kind to Mrs. Eyster and then mother & I came home & did some finishing touches. Later I went out calling - Mrs. Lutz & Mrs. Breunman. After supper Doug Francis came to see me & kissed me & got me all mixed up by the time dear little Lou May dropped in to say bye. Tummy! Dick Snyder also came, but his freshman Doug stayed on & kissed me again & again.

NOVEMBER, 1921.

Thursday 17

Got every thing in readiness.
Late came & told me all about F. Kiefer's wedding, etc & took me to say good-bye to every one & to the station. Charlotte was there & introduced me to Mrs. Brown, friend of Emily's who came on the same train. She is very young & attractive & we had lots of fun together.
Even went in the ladies room & smoked a few cigarettes.
Beau met my train & put me on a bus to come to 1018 Madison Ave, where Miss Ward welcomed me. Samia & Eleanor Marquand are here.
Walter White came to call in the evening. And I can't talk!

Phil says "flirtations" after midnight!!

NOVEMBER, 1921.

Friday 18

Was awakened at what seemed to me to be day break.
Actually ate a big breakfast.
Talked to Samia & Eleanor.
They are very nice girls.
Then I went out in the car with Miss Ward & later she & I had luncheon here together. In the afternoon Miss Ward took Miss M.
Robinson & me driving way out to Pye, Conely.
I unpacked some clothes when we returned. Phil Raynolds & Olivia Johnson came to dinner. I went to see old Devy again! Then we four went in Phil's Ford to see the O'Brien girl - musical comedy & afterward to Club Royal to dance.

up early again - went out riding with Miss Ward and wrote to Miles & Lou May before Miss W. took me to meet Phil at the Baltimore. As usual had to wait for him - he showed me his office - & then we had lunch together. Beau met us & we got the ford & went to Staten Island to get Phil's watch. Beau was kind of supercilious & Phil in a bad humor - but at times I got him a little interested - but not like last night. After dining with the Wards alone, Beau & I went down town & bought

26th after Trinity Sunday 20

Went to church with Beau at St. Thomas on 5th Ave. Very beautiful. Mr. & Mrs. Artemis Ward came to dinner. After wards we waited & waited for Phil to come - nearly two hours late. A Miss He gree, from Columbia College, came to see Miss Ward, also a friend. When Phil's ford came we got Ruth Marden, my niece, and went to Olivia's for tea. Ray was there - much improved over two yrs. ago. Then we four & Olivia went to see the "Lions at the Zoo - dark!" Later we got Oliv's "date" Walter Chappel & went to the "Pirates' Den" to eat & dance. Flirted with Phil merely for entertainment.

NOVEMBER, 1921.

Monday 21

Letter from Mai, Mary & my dear Hugh - as usual. I felt Hugh's was coming. I went driving & shopping with Miss Ward & afterward fixed some pillows to hemstitch. In the afternoon I met Olivia & we went in the train to Bay side, N. J.
& saw my darling Vickie hers pups. She isn't as pretty but just as dear & it really broke my heart to leave her there, standing in the gate with two little puppies. God! I wish I could have her again.
Olivia & I did a lot of talking, then I left her to meet Arthur.
Dad at their hotel & with Beau we all had dinner & then saw "Tangerine" very good runo. comes with Fred Anderson.

Saw Norman White (Bda)
at the same club
NOVEMBER, 1921.

Tuesday 22

Put my trunk in order & set out for the day - met Mother & waited all over N. Y. shopping.
Met Dan at Waldorf & we had lunch together at a garden.
Gee, it is wonderful to see dear old Dan Beebe again.
We went to see W. Reid & Elsie Higson in "Peter Ibbotson" - a very good but sad movie. We talked over Dugan off - Phil met us in the 1300 ft. took us to train. Met & made ground, picking up Hugh Arthur & Beau & Bert Reed, friends of Phil's.
Mother & Dad came to the Ward's to dinner - talked & then after much argument Phil & I were allowed to go to dance at Club Maurice & Beau came in later. Phil fine but I don't love him.

NOVEMBER, 1921.

Wednesday 23

After breakfast I fixed my bag, said good-bye to the judge, and soon had to say good-bye to dear Miss Ward & step into my taxi-cab & taxi driver. Picked up Max & Pa at their hotel and went all the way to the foot of Wall St. where our boat was in dock. Discovered she will be four hours late in starting so we three visited the Aquarium & Trinity Church before meeting Beane for luncheon. Talked to him for a while got settled in our stateroom & finally pulled out. Very attractive people. Read stamer letters from Nell & Pete.

Talked a wee bit to Capt O' NOVEMBER, 1921. 1 day.

Thursday 24

Not such a bad night-boat considering the dark next door to us. Sat on deck & read a few more letters - Lucile, Aunt & Lou May. Then I started "The Cruise of the Ranga" a ridiculous book which Beane gave me. After lunch I couldn't resist reading all the letters - Fred, Mary, Mike & Hugh. They were all wonders. Then I played quarts with the people at the table - & with whom I played dominoes last night. Two men & a woman rather common, but good hearted. Read on deck & after champagne giving dinner read in the lobby & watched various "theater".

NOVEMBER, 1921.

Friday 25

The old Dipala is rolling right along - my sunbath. I walked the decks, finished my bath & they actually got out my hair itching and finished that!! After lunch I wrote to Phil, Mary R. and Miss Ward. Also took a little nap and dreamt that Hugh & I was sailing the ocean blue with me. After dinner Mrs. Meyenberg, who sits at our table, introduced me to a little Spaniard who wrote a letter in Spanish to Hugh for me! While he was writing he stopped & had me dance on deck with him to a guitar! Lots of Spanish aboard.

NOVEMBER, 1921.

Saturday 26

Arrived in Nassau at six - beautiful view as we approached. Talked to English man coming over in tender. She had been sick before. Nassau is very quiet & the town more beautiful than Bermuda. We went to a hotel & then drove around, trying to find a boarding house. Came back to the awful hotel & I slept for several hours during which time Dad discovered a house for rent. After lunch Mother & I walked thru colonial hotel grounds, etc. & met Mrs. Vail, who took us under her wing. Later we went to Rose Hill Cottage & decided to take it. Mr. & Mrs. Miller, the landlords, are very nice - English. Supper at a "candy kitchen" & to bed early in our new house - rather discouraged.

Advent
Sunday

Sunday 27

Things look more cheerful in the morning sunlight.
We packed our trunks & got settled that way - but the rest of the house - ugh!
Went to Mrs. Rooker's boarding house to dinner - it is very nice. In the afternoon we sat on our lonely porch and looked at the lonely old grounds and decided what we can do to get settled.
If we could only find a cook! Ma & I took a walk then crossed town to the water wonderful sunset. Went to Mrs. Rooker's to supper & after ward sat in the twilight & later wrote to Beau & Emile & Edward.

NOVEMBER, 1921.

Monday 28

Slept with a mosquito net over me - the pesky things.
Spent the whole day doing little things about the house - helped Mrs.
Miller put up our trunks etc.
We are beginning to look civilized. Millions of maids came to apply for jobs, but it is hard to pick out the right ones.
Went to candy kitchen for a cheap lunch & to Mrs. Rooker for a splendid dinner.
It rained quite hard during afternoon. Mrs.
Field who came on our boat, called - she is very nice. In the evening I went Mother at home early.

forgot to say that Mr + Mrs. Shepherd and Mrs. Sawyer - neighbors - called.
NOVEMBER, 1921.

Tuesday 29

Rushed down to the dock to meet Mrs. Field & go in arrival seeing that it was no rough land I went shopping with her instead. In the afternoon the cook & housemaid arrived, so after a last meal at the dock little candy kitchen I took Lauretta (cook) down town & we bought supplies. Marketing is more interesting here than Bda. We had our first meal at home -
I have to teach Frances (housemaid) to wait on table. I have my hands full. Wrote to Flayed maids.

St. Andrew's Day. Wednesday 30

This time I met Mrs. Field
& we went over to the beach in a little motor boat. Mrs. Chapman & some Canadian girls went with us. Ocean was great - just like old Eba Beach.
In the afternoon Ma
& I went down town
& did a few errands.
Then I came home & rested as I am getting acclimated. By & by I was sufficiently peppy to take a walk with mother. My maids seem to be getting along but it is kind of a nerve-strain after any of us wrote to Nan Olivia & the apples. Played in!

wrote to Charlotte.

DECEMBER, 1921.

Thursday 1

got up with the profuse tired feeling of acclimation.
Felt better after a cup of tea - attended to my household duties and sat on the porch sewing. In the afternoon I decided to let Ma do the housekeeping - conditions are a little beyond me here.
Went with Dad to buy him a decent hat in place of one he bought the other day.
Dressed & went to Mr. & Mrs.
Shepherds' (called on her) to tea and there met the Misses Hare & Mr. Porteous & young Miss Leonard Pickford, besides lots of other people.
Had nice time. After supper Ma, Pa & I went to spring of no evils natives primitive - Gov. etc. there

DECEMBER, 1921.

Friday 2

Went down to the docks to meet Mrs. Field to go swimming but the boat was missing, so we wandered to the men's club & saw Mr. Farrington there who finally found our boat & we had a marvelous bath. In the afternoon I wrote a long letter to Hugh until little Miss Hare - & Sheila - came to see me. We talked & talked - she is very nice much nicer than her sister who is jealous of me, I guess!
We had tea which Miss served very nicely. After supper I wrote to Hugh, Mike and Lou. which was answered first.

DECEMBER, 1921.

Saturday 3

Dad + I went to the beach with Mrs. Field + my two housemates. We had a splendid bath in that wonderful ocean. In the afternoon I read "Local Color" by Irving Cobb and later went down town with Mother, glassing for possibilities for Christmas presents! On the way home we signed in the G.O.P. house visitors book + turned the light on in the hall of G. H. by mistake!! Got away safely however! After supper I played my hands. Mother wrote to Freddie + Peter.

DECEMBER, 1921.

2nd in Advent. Sunday 4

Dressed in my coal clothes + went to the service at the Cathedral. Sermon: Bible is the history of the Seed of Woman. In the afternoon I took a little nap - always napping + eating in this place. and later Cambridge, the black driver who first showed us this house, came to take us a very nice drive out east. Dad made me sit in front and do the talking! Dad is always crabby lately. Mother I fixed the soup jar. Kate I had to amuse myself by drawing a native girl of <sup>native</sup> ~~native~~ <sup>red hair</sup> ~~red hair~~.

DECEMBER, 1921.

Monday 5

Mother and I went down town to buy shoes for me. couldn't - & to buy Christmas presents - nearly couldn't. It began to rain and we had to stay in Mr. Solomon's cigar store where we bought most of our presents. In the afternoon I sewed and went down town again with mother - bought Christmas card & went to the library. Then I went to tea at Sheila Harris. Lots of old people there. Sheila & her sister & I walked out west. wrote to Edie & to Miss Handy after supper. Mrs. Field Miss Chapman & Miss Baldwin called. nice.

DECEMBER, 1921.

Tuesday 6

It's rather cold today - none of us went swimming, so I shampooed my hair. At lunch Dad got so noisy I almost had to leave the room. He is always in a bad humor lately. After lunch I went over to the Fold - where Mrs. Field lives - to see about a ticket for tonight. Had a cigarette over there. Then mother and I took a walk. Later I dropped and went to the Fold to dine - nice & more cigarette. After dinner we four went to see the Paramount - Misses had show & wax works - rather interesting. Eleven have danced.

(lost two words - Shelagh's brother)
DECEMBER, 1921.

Wednesday 7

Went over to the beach
with the "flock" from the fold. Dad did not go. It was a marvelous day, water like diamonds.
Half way home I remembered my ring I still in the bath-house!!! We had to go back.

In the afternoon I
read "Six Feet Four" by Jackson Gregory until time to dress to go to Government house tea with Shelagh Mare & her father. Met the Gov. & his lady. John Porteous was there and played around with us. Afterward we walked to his house & he made us stay & have dinner with him & his father. Nice at in morning - met Shelagh too.

Wrote birthday letter to Nan.
DECEMBER, 1921.

Thursday 8

Mother & I again went into the region of "large ships" and searched our heads & feet off for some thing to give for Xmas. At last we were successful.
In the afternoon, Shelagh was coming to tea & couldn't go! I sat alone and embroidered Beanie's initials on handkerchiefs.
Later Mother & I went over to the fold to see the flocks; they had lots of other companies too. All were doing - except me!
After supper I read about my big man - Six Feet Four.
Got a letter today from Norma White! Rather a surprise.

Friday 9

Absolutely sleepless night - but not mosquito-less!
got the nurse so I sat around addressing Xmas cards. In the afternoon I played m.
for a while & generally filled in the time before Lallaugh came to tea. Later Mrs.
Judd drapt in and so did Miss Lubine & Miss Valentine came to call! Quite a sleep tide. After supper I wrote to Phinny, Heloise Beebe, Henrietta and Susan.
Got a letter from Emily R. saying child birth is not bad.

invitation to government dance DECEMBER, 1921. ball!

Saturday 10

Very busy before I got up but very energetic afterward - tied up Xmas presents and drew a little tropical sunset scene for a picture frame for Charley.
In the afternoon I played m. and watched a rain storm until time to go to Lallaugh Hart's to tea. Ellen was there too and was quite nice. Lallaugh & I bought some plants on the way home & ate them on Mrs. Field's vine.
Emmeline's a handie for luck and after supper I tied up more packages.

got up with no intention of going to church but I went! In the afternoon I fooled around - went over to the fields for a cigarette & finally went to the Harris, to tea - met young Harris' fiancée, Molly Brown there. After tea John Porteous took us all out to see the lovely house his father is building. After he took me to the fields where I met Mrs. Mrs. & nearly Mr. Archie Lettupson & his supper with them. Mr.
Chenbrister - half colored - was there & wrote words to a but mother down town & actually finished, then shopping - came home alone, had a cig. and tied up the presents. After lunchon Dad & I went to the P. O. to send off the packages; on the way home I met John Porteous and took a ride with him - he let me run his car. He came in after ward but Ma had a caller & we released to the back. After he left I got shelled, with a cold, to come to tea. After supper Dad, Ma & I called first on Mrs. Sanger & then the shepherds. Nice

Mrs. Bullock called.

DECEMBER, 1921.

Tuesday 13

Started upon town to do some shopping - stopped at Sheilagh's & found her in bed. Later I met Miss Valentine & Miss Lorne, who took us with them out to Lough Lough to go swimming. It was lovely but not so nice as the Colman beach. In the afternoon, feeling rather tired, I went over to the fold for a 'cig' then got some yarn to knit Dad's socks. Got paint on my dress & had to go down a third time for turpentine. Miss Chapman took it out for me. Then spent the rest of the time knitting.

DECEMBER, 1921.

Wednesday 14

Hurried down to the dock to go over to Hog Island with the 'Flock' & the 'treabighs' & Dad to go in bathing. The water is cold, as usual. Dad must have heard Miss B. offer me a cig. but he has said nothing! In the afternoon I wrote to Nell & Aunt Lulu & then dressed to go to Sheilagh's to tea. Poor dear is still in bed. We had fun chatting. Her nice brother Pat brought me home. After supper Dad, Ma & I sat in the glorious moonlight. Later Mr. Brown called. Finished knitting by knitting & making the King's Rag.

DECEMBER, 1921.

Thursday 15

Start to see Shulagh and get Molly Brown to go over to the beach with me. Over there Mrs. Field exploded her glasses in the bath house! In the afternoon I was sleeping on the couch when Gold Paton "Dimples" dropped in! He took me out next to his new house & for a ride. Got me home in time to dress for a tennis party at the Colonial to which I went with Fred Ambrosio & met Nassovian. We took a walk too. After supper I went over to see poor Shulagh & Dimples came & we too took a walk along water & he tried to kiss me.

DECEMBER, 1921.

Friday 16

Bad night - remembered Dimples was sick. Slept in his car, also couldn't get wonderful vision of moonlight on water which we sat by and of my mind. Morning - too windy to go swimming. Went down town & did a lot of shopping. In the afternoon I went over to the hotel for a cig. - not at home. Bob! Dead until time to call on Mrs. Dalton. Went over with mother & the Haris - Shulagh too sick to be seen. I hate calling. Ma & I took a walk after supper. Miss Baldwin called & talked of experiences in France. Very interesting - but I have heard in the Ford truck - wonderful moonlight and east - but we had a puncture Fred Ambrose + party brought in his car.

DECEMBER, 1921.

Saturday 17

Too windy and sun too grumpy for a swim.
Knitted and sketched designs for tortoise shell earrings. In the afternoon I went down town with mother - for nothing as far as I was concerned. When we got back we had tea and by ourselves.
Then I started a sketch in pastel of the view from our porch. Miss Duncombe called. Later Frances + I went out in rain for walk. After supper Dad + I had a M. jazz harp concert! Later Mat
I went out with the "Hobbs".

DECEMBER, 1921.

4th in Advent.
Peace Sunday.

Sunday 18

Went to enquire for Shelagh and Jimples opened the door so he went with us all over to the beach + we had a great swim - he looked very well in a bathing suit. Mr.
Ambrose + Mr. Farrington were there too - the latter + I had lots of fun under water!
On the way home the whole hunch - mine - + I left here for cocktails. After dinner Miss Lo came - we sat here + talked
+ later walked to the old fort + climbed up to see the sunset. Climbed down in dark - some climb! Met Pickford on our way home. After supper I read "Fringe on the Desert" by R.S. Macnamara.

DECEMBER, 1921.

Monday 19

Went to see Shilag - she looks much better - went to library - saw dimples, and I suppose, his mother. Then I went over to the beach. Water wonderful but I lacked the energetic companions. In the afternoon I went down town and for hours did my best to patch silk, ribbon + toques to make a bag for Ma. Finally I took the materials to the fold and got to work. They all went out but I had tea all alone - + cigarettes! After supper they all came over to see us for a little while.

Mail! - M. & R. - Nan - Fannie Granger's wedding!
DECEMBER, 1921.

Tuesday 20

By the time I finished my usual exercises this morning it was quite late, but I got to work + finished one of Dad's socks. In the afternoon I went over to the fold again and worked hard on my bag for mother. It is getting rather attractive. Miss Chapman was having a card party but I stayed & nevertheless. After supper John Porters came in to see me and he + Mother + I played rum and had really a very nice time. He is an awfully nice boy.

DECEMBER, 1921.

Wednesday 21

Kept everyone waiting for me at the boat to go over to the beach.
Mrs. Bullock went with us today - she is a dear - so "full of beans".
In the afternoon I went over to the fold & worked hard on the bag until time to go to Shellagh's to tea. She was sitting up - great to have her so much better. Molly walked home with me more mail - darling letter from Hugh, but full of Spanish. After supper
I went to club & I read & suggested to the
I smoke a cigar - <sup>but she couldn't</sup> swallow it.

DECEMBER, 1921.

Thursday 22

Went over to the fold quite early & began work it is too windy today to arrive. Later I went down town & visited at Dad's club to get some money from him & left at Shellagh's twice on errands. In the afternoon I worked at the fold till I went to Shellagh's for tea. We tried to translate English & Spanish letter. "Dimples" came in & took me home. In the evening I went over to the fold again - Oh I forgot to say that they all had lunch with us - a rather stiff one, I think.

DECEMBER, 1921.

Friday 23

Went over to the beach-Jack Culmer went - young & a "conk" (half black) in the afternoon. I finished Neather's bag at the fold - met Jimmie answering my note to him.
This morning in person - he invited for tomorrow night - And then Mr. Savington, also "conk" but very nice & attractive took me out sailing. We lost a centerboard, broke a tiller, etc but all in all had a delightful time - chocolates too! He gave me a splendid lesson in sailing too. And twice he dove overboard to fix something!! Home at six after supper I went to Shilap's & had a delightful evening.

DECEMBER, 1921.

Saturday 24

I've decided to give up cigarettes.
Went over to the beach.
Mrs Chapman & I walked around the point to where the ocean dashes up. In the afternoon I was dyeing a dress when Jimmie appeared. He helped me & then we went for a ride. He gave us some mint tea. Later we went to Shilap's to tea and he cut up "delightfully" - full of spirit as the English say. Mr. Glatton came in to see & as I left & helped Ma trim a tomato tree. When I dressed & we waited for Jimmie to go to Mrs. Stre-heglio's to supper - lots there.
We danced & sat on the porch & flirted & called on Shilap's <sup>watched</sup> the dancing.

DÉCEMBER, 1921.

Sunday 25

Day. Sunday 23
Went to early communion with the family - opened presents (see back). Stopt to see Shalagh on my way to the beach with the Flocks and J. W. Webster & Sydney Farrington. The latter had lots of fun in the water until he tried to kiss me under water! Then the whole bunch came here for cock tails. After a turkey dinner at home I spent with Dimples - who kissed me under the mistletoe and the Hares & Mrs. Mac Rae to the Porters place to swim. I swatched. Then we left the Hares & took a ride before going back to the Hares to a big tea, where dear Shalagh held court. Then I went to the Fields to a Day. Monday 20 was supposed to go to see the junkhouses / docks / magazines at five this A.M. with Sidney, Farrington, but I did not!

Later I made sandwiches and Dimpie came to take me to a picnic with the Consul + Mrs. Lattrop, Ellen Hare, Pat Hare, Molly Brown, Mae Rae and Pickford. We sailed to one of the islands - wonderful.
Pick. + I sat in dinghy most of the way - he was half sick + got more so later.
We had lots to drink - not I - and a jolly picnic, went in swimming. Dimpie brought me home + kissed me while under the gateway? He's a dear.
Later I wrote to Aunt L. + to Mom.

DECEMBER, 1921.

Tuesday 27

Mother & I went down town
- after I stop in at Shelagh's.
We bought material & dyes to make me a fancy dress. In the afternoon I got to work and dyed all the colors of the rainbow. When I had practically dyed - I mean, died, myself I went over to Shelagh's for tea. I am over + Shelagh and I had a nice little gossip. Molly & Lillian were there off & on.
Later I got another Xmas present, from Mrs. Hartman.
After supper Mr & Mrs. Ray-herd called & Pickford & Mrs. Rae came to see me. We chatted on porch & had a drink later with them.

DECEMBER, 1921.

Wednesday 28

Had to go down town & buy some more dyes & dye again - this darned time.
Got lots & lots of Xmas cards & a few presents. In the afternoon I served, until time to take a cab and go to tea at Miss Valentine's & Miss Thorne's.
Just myself and if
was very nice - to make up for my lack of enthusiasm before.
Walked home after supper. Dad went out to Lady Williams & in to - a "wild woman" and later Dimples came in to entertain that one! &
he is very entertaining.

DECEMBER, 1921.

Thursday 29

Went over to the black-the colonial hotel is narrow it was + gives oranges on sticks to the children - delicious. Later as Ma + Pa are going out I got the right to come out for the first time and have lunch with me. Lots of fun - smoked + enjoyed, very happy freedom! She stayed to tea too + we got + selves. Mother is not feeling well after walking home with a heavy bag to bed. I washed my hair this afternoon, so it is rather tired when you came. We talked "etc" on porch.

DECEMBER, 1921.

Friday 30

Rotten night - I think I have the dengue fever just like Ma. But as she is sick I had to get up + do the housekeeping - even took the laundry down. When Dad left I took my temperature - 104°!!
I lay on the couch in the garden + tried to feel better.
When Dad came home
he discovered it + sent me to bed - I do not want to go to bed + give in to disease. Dr. Hare came soon + gave me some awful medicine.
I ache, ache in every inch of me - oh, why did I have to get sick?

DECEMBER, 1921.

Saturday 31

Don't care much if I live or die! Dad came home with lots of nice presents.
Candy from dear old Hugh + Peter - aren't they dear?
Hankies from Tom, sock-ings from old Blissy.
But I was so sick
I care much about them - except Hugh's, gave me a nice feeling. Dr.
came again & no encouragement. Dimples brought me some lovely novels. He is sweet.
Every one is calling up so kindly - considering how short a time we have been ill.

Damn, damn, damn.
This is a nice way to Christmas Day - continued

big supper party - delicious! But I had to sit with Sydney Farrington + Fred Lambister - and the latter took me out in the hall for a drag at his cig. and then he kissed me - ugh! - a colored man! Nora, where is your pride?
 Well, I like novelty + variety!
 Later "Dimples" came in + kind of upset things for me for the "later" was too but he was very dear and told me that the "white" people have been talking about my going about with conks, so I guess I'd better stop, but I won't mind for shate them - the sentimental beasts and I do like Dimples very much. Just my luck that he isn't old enough to marry!

Christmas presents.

MEMORANDA.

MEMORANDA.

A man often marries a woman to find later that he has married some one else's mother.

Light can be seen even in the dagger that brings pain.

"your friend, all ways + always."

"He's full of T. N. T. (Terribly Naughty Thoughts!)"

The more I know of men the more I love dogs - but the more I know of women, the more I like cats!

"Daddy and Mummy."

MEMORANDA.

Always be content with what you have but never with what you are.

What he spent he had;
what he saved he lost;
what he gave he has.

By his sheer physical bigness, first, he fascinated her. He was like the night & storm itself, big, powerful, not the kind born to know & suffer restraint, but rather the type of man to dwell in such lands as stretched mile after unfenced mile "out yonder" beyond the vision barrier. As he moved he gave forth a

MEMORANDA.

To stop nausea:
one teaspoonful of bicarbonate of soda in a cupful of cracked ice + water.
Take one or two teaspoonful every ten minutes.

For any intestinal trouble: first swallow crackers in a little milk, with pepper + salt, later, oral milk toast.
